PROCLAMATION

Extending the Limits of the Dunstan Goldfield, within the Province of Otago.

By the Honorable John Hyde Harris,
Superintendent of the said Province.

WHEREAS it is desirable to alter and extend the limits of the Dunstan Goldfield, in the Province of Otago.

Now, Therefore, I, John Hyde Harris, Superintendent of the Province of Otago, by virtue of the powers delegated to and vested in me by His Excellency the Governor under and by virtue of "The Goldfields Act, 1862," do hereby Proclaim and Declare that all that territory hereinafter described shall henceforth be included within and form part of the Dunstan Goldfield under the provisions of the said Act, that is to say: All that area, situate in the Province of Otago, bounded towards the north-west by a line extending in a north-easterly direction from the existing Dunstan Goldfield to Mount St. Bathans, thence towards the south and west by the boundary of the existing Dunstan Goldfield to the starting point.

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the Province of Otago, at Dunedin, this twenty-second day of February, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Four.

JOHN HYDE HARRIS,
Superintendent.

By His Honor's Command,

THOMAS DICK, Provincial Secretary.

PORT CHALMERS TOWN BOARD ELECTION.

IN pursuance of the provisions of the Port Chalmers and Invercargill Town Board Ordinance, 1859, I, the Superintendent of the Province of Otago, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 3rd day of March next, at twelve o'clock noon, as the day and time for the holding of an election of five members of the Town Board of Port Chalmers, in Place of

A PROCLAMATION.

Disallowing certain Ordinances passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Otago.

By His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight, Commander of the most honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief, in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act made and enacted in the Imperial Parliament, holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it is amongst other things enacted that whenever any Bill shall have been assented to by the Superintendent as in the said Act provided, the Superintendent shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic copy thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time within three months after any such Bill shall have been received by him, to declare by proclamation his disallowance of such Bill, and that any such disallow-ance shall make void and annul the same, from and after the day of the date of such Proclamation, or any subsequent day to be named therein :

And whereas the Ordinances hereinafter specified have been enacted by the Superintendent of the Province of Otago, with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, and the said Ordinances were received by the Governor on the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty three;

And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinances should be disallowed.

Now, therefore, I, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority vested in me in that behalf by the said recited Act of Parliament, do hereby proclaim and declare my disallowance of the following Ordinances passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Otago; viz:—

“Vaccination Ordinance, 1863,”

“Watermen’s Licensing Ordinance, 1863,”

“The Superintendent’s Incorporation Ordinance, 1863.”

Given under my hand at the Government House at Auckland, and issued under the seal of the Colony of New Zealand, this second day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

BANK OF AUSTRALASIA.

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight, Commander of the most honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS it is enacted by the “Bank Paper Currency Act, 1856,” that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Government Gazette, from time to time to proclaim and declare that any Banking Company or Copartnership, Incorporated by Her Majesty's Letters Patent, which, by virtue of such Letters Patent, is empowered to carry on the business of a Banker in New Zealand, and to issue and circulate within the said Colony the Promissory Notes of the Company, payable to bearer on demand, may lawfully issue and circulate such Notes within the said Colony, any Law or Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding, but subject to the provisions and restrictions in such Letters Patent contained.

And Whereas, by Letters Patent passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, on the Twenty-first day of May, in the Fifth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William IV, and by certain other Letters Patent passed under the Great Seal as aforesaid, on the Sixteenth day of March, in the Fourth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, a certain Banking Company called the Bank of Australasia was established and incorporated, and empowered to carry on the business of Bankers (amongst other places) in New Zealand and has applied for authority to issue and circulate within the said Colony, the Promissory Notes of the said Company, payable to bearer on demand.

Now therefore, I SIR GEORGE GREY, the Governor as aforesaid, in pursuance of the authority vested in me in that behalf by the said recited Act, do hereby, with the advice of the Executive Council, proclaim and declare that the "Bank of Australasia" may lawfully issue and circulate within the said Colony the Promissory Notes of the said Bank, payable to bearer on demand, subject to the provisions and restrictions in the Letters Patent contained.

Given under my hand at the Government House at Auckland, and issued under the public seal of the colony of New Zealand, this twelfth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

G. GREY.

By his Excellency's command,

WILLIAM FOX.

LETTERS PATENT.

A PROCLAMATION.

Fixing the time for bringing into operation an Act to determine the time at which Letters Patent shall take effect in the Colonies.

By His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the most honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Imperial Parliament made and passed in the Session held in the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled, "An Act to determine the time at which Letters Patent shall take effect in the Colonies," it is enacted that the said Act shall take effect in each of Her Majesty's Colonies and Possessions as soon as the same shall be proclaimed therein by the officer administering the Government thereof. Now, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony of New Zealand, Do Hereby Proclaim that the said Act shall take effect within the said Colony from and after the date hereof.

Given under my hand, at the Government House at Auckland, and issued under the seal of the Colony of New Zealand, this thirteenth day of January, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

G. GREY.

THE following Notice received from the Marine Board, relative to a sunken rock near Napier, Hawke's Bay, is published for general information.

WILLIAM FOX,
For the Postmaster-General.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

SUNKEN ROCK.

THE position of the Sunken Rock in Hawke's Bay, upon which the steamship "Auckland" struck in August, 1863, has been ascertained by Mr. Murray, Harbor Master and Pilot of the Port of Napier. The following bearing and distance is given, viz. :—

"It is a shoal with four fathoms, having numerous detached rocks extending north and south, a quarter of a mile in length. The Bluff, 'Scinde Island,' bears from the northernmost end of the shoal, west by compass, distant one mile, Cape Kidnappers south-east.

By direction of the Provincial Government of Hawke's Bay, a buoy has been laid down, half a cable's length from the north end of the shoal.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

G. GREY,
Governor.

Making Quarantine Regulations for the Colony of New Zealand.

At the Government House at Auckland, the twelfth day of January, 1864.

Present :

IN pursuance and in exercise of the powers vested in the Governor in Council by the "Marine Board Act, 1863," His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, doth hereby approve of the following Quarantine Regulations, made and issued by the Marine Board for the several Ports and Harbours in the Colony of New Zealand, and doth declare that the same shall be in force from and after the twelfth day of January, 1864.

FOSTER GORING, Clerk of Executive Council.
QUARANTINE REGULATIONS.

1. The Master of every vessel which shall be deemed by the Harbor Master to be liable to Quarantine shall, on being directed so to do by the Harbor Master, cause such vessel to be anchored in the Quarantine Ground appointed for the Harbor, or forfeit the sum of £50 for every day, or portion of a day, during which he shall neglect or refuse so to do.

2. The Master of any vessel so anchored, who shall either himself quit, or permit any seamen, passenger, or other person to quit the same, except by authority from the Board of Health hereinafter mentioned, until he shall have been duly admitted to pratique, shall forfeit the sum of £50 in respect of each person who shall so quit the vessel.

3. Every person who shall so quit such vessel shall forfeit the sum of £20.

4. The Master of every vessel so anchored shall hoist a yellow flag of not less than six breadths of bunting at the main by day, and a light by night in a lantern such as is used in H.M. Navy, and shall keep the same respectively hoisted until released from Quarantine, otherwise he shall forfeit for each offence the sum of £20.

5. The Master of every vessel so anchored shall deliver to the Harbor Master or other authorised person his bill of health, manifest, log book, and journal, and shall fill up a report in the form pointed out by the schedule A, annexed.

6. The Master of every vessel so anchored who shall suffer any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, Packets, Books, Letters, or other articles to be unshipped or landed, and any person or persons who shall be concerned in the unshipping or landing of the same, shall forfeit for each and every article so unshipped or landed the sum of twenty pounds.

7. Every person or persons who shall knowingly receive any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, Packets, Package, Baggage, Books, or Letters, or any other article whatever, from any vessel so anchored, shall forfeit for each and every article the sum of twenty pounds.

8. Any person who, without the authority of the Board of Health, shall go within the limits of any Quarantine Station when any vessel shall be there at anchor performing Quarantine, or within the limits of any Lazaret whilst the same is occupied, shall forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, and shall be liable to be detained and kept in Quarantine as if he were a passenger of such vessel subject to Quarantine.

9. If any Officer or person entrusted with the performance of any duties respecting Quarantine, shall in any way neglect his duty, he shall for each offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

10. The Harbor Master or Pilot shall, immediately after any vessel shall have been anchored in Quarantine, report the same to the Resident Magistrate, and to the Health Officer of the Port, or to the person or persons acting or appointed to act for those functionaries.

11. There shall for every Port be a Health Officer, to be from time to time appointed by the Superintendent of the Province, who shall, immediately upon the receipt of the said report, visit the vessel so anchored, and if he shall find that any sickness of an infectious or contagious nature exists, or shall then recently have existed on board of her, submit full information in regard thereto to the Board of Health hereinafter mentioned.

12. The Board of Health shall consist of the Resident Magistrate of the Port, one or more Justices of the Peace, the Superior Officer of Customs at the Port, the Health Officer of the Port, and if the Health Officer be not a medical practitioner, one or more legally qualified medical practitioners, to be appointed by the Superintendent of the Province, of which Board the Resident Magistrate shall be convener.

13. The said Board, or the majority of them, shall have authority to detain any such vessel as aforesaid in Quarantine until every symptom of any infectious or contagious disease as aforesaid shall have disappeared, and until sufficient time to prevent the spread of such disease shall in the opinion of the Board have elapsed since the last case disappeared, and thereupon to release such vessel from Quarantine and admit her to pratique.

14. It shall be lawful for the Superintendent of any Province, upon the recommendation of the said Board, to appoint any station or place within any port or harbor in the said Province for the performance of Quarantine, where all vessels liable to Quarantine, and the crews, passengers, and persons on board thereof shall perform the same, and also, if necessary, to appoint Lazarets and other places where the crews, passengers, and other persons, and the goods, wares, and merchandise which shall or may be on board the said vessels shall and may be detained, landed, and kept for the performance of Quarantine.

15. If any person shall, contrary to the provisions of this Act, quit any vessel in Quarantine, or go within the limits of any Quarantine Station or Lazaret, it shall be lawful for any Peace Officer or Constable to apprehend him and carry him before a Justice of the Peace, who may, if he shall think fit, grant his warrant for conveying such person back to the vessel, Quarantine Station, or Lazaret, which he shall have left, there to remain and perform Quarantine.

16. The aforesaid Board shall have power to prescribe all measures necessary for cleansing, purifying, and disinfecting any vessel in Quarantine, and the passengers and crew thereof, and the goods, wares, and merchandise therein, and, if necessary, to order the destruction of any clothing or materials which cannot be cleansed, purified, or disinfected.

17. During the detention of the crew or passengers of any vessel in Quarantine, whether on board or on shore, the master of such vessel shall provide and supply provisions for the said crew and passengers on the same scale as during the voyage.

18. During the period any vessel may be in Quarantine the Resident Magistrate and Health Officer shall visit her alongside from time to time, and institute such regulations as the nature of the case may demand, and the master or commander shall carry such regulations into effect, or forfeit for each offence a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

19. The Resident Magistrate at any port for which no Harbor Master or Health Officer is appointed shall have and exercise all the powers hereinbefore given to such officers.

LETTERS PATENT.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 15th January, 1864.

THE following Act, passed by the Imperial Parliament, intituled "An Act to determine the time at which Letters Patent shall take effect in the Colonies," is published for general information.

WM. FOX.

ANNO VICESIMO SEXTO AND VICESIMO SEPTIMO.

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,
CAP. LXXVI.

AN ACT to determine the Time at which Letters Patent shall take effect in the Colonies.

[28th July, 1863.]

WHEREAS Her Majesty hath from time to time caused to be made under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland divers Letters Patent intended to take effect within Her Majesty's Colonies and Possessions beyond the seas: And whereas doubts are entertained respecting the period at which such Letters Patent have taken or may hereafter take effect within such Colonies and Possessions, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. No such Letters Patent heretofore made shall (unless otherwise provided therein or by other lawful authority) be deemed to have taken or shall take effect in any such Colony or Possession as aforesaid until the same were or shall be publicly made known or acted upon therein: Provided that any act or thing heretofore done or purporting to have been done in pursuance or under authority of such Letters Patent shall be as valid and effectual as if the same Letters Patent had taken effect at the date of the making thereof.

2. No such Letters Patent hereafter to be made shall (unless otherwise provided therein or by other lawful authority) take effect in any such Colony or Possession until the making of the same shall have been signified therein by Proclamation or other public notice.

3. Any such Letters Patent by which any person may be hereafter appointed to any office or employment within any of such Colonies or Possessions shall (unless otherwise provided therein or by other lawful authority) become null and void in respect of such Colony, unless the same shall be so signified as aforesaid within the following period; that is to say, within Nine Calendar Months in case such Colony or Possession shall be to the eastward of Bengal in the East Indies, or to the west of Cape Horn in South America, or in any other case within six months after the making thereof.

4. The Act, chapter ninety-one, of the ninth and tenth years of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue certain Patent Commissions until the Exhibition of the Commissions revoking them," is hereby repealed.

5. This Act shall take effect in each of Her Majesty's Colonies and Possessions so soon as the same shall be proclaimed therein by the Officer administering the Government thereof.

NOTICE is hereby given that ALEXANDER CUMMING, of Dunedin, in the Province of Otago, and Colony of New Zealand, merchant, trading there under the style or firm of Alexander Cumming and Co., has by Indenture of Conveyance and Assignment, bearing date the twenty-second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between the said ALEXANDER CUMMING of the first part, JAMES RATTRAY EDWARD BOWES CARGILL, and WOLF HARRIS, all of Dunedin aforesaid, merchants, of the second part, and the several other persons whose names and seals are thereunto subscribed and set, and who are also respectively named in the first schedule thereunder written, and being severally creditors in their own right or in co-partnership, or being agents or attorneys of creditors of the said Alexander Cumming of the third part, conveyed and assigned all his real and personal estate and effects unto the said James Rattray, Edward Bowes Cargill, and Wolf Harris, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, in trust for all the creditors of the said Alexander Cumming. And Notice is hereby further given that the said Deed now lies for signature by and on behalf of the creditors of the said Alexander Cumming, at the offices of Messieurs Prendergast, Kenyon, and Maddock, in Manse street, Dunedin aforesaid, solicitors.
