Downing Street,
22nd January, 1864.

I enclose for your information and for the guidance of the Immigration Officers in the Colony under your government, Copies of an Order in Council, passed on the 7th instant, for preserving order, promoting health and securing cleanliness and ventilation on board Passenger Ships proceeding from the United Kingdom.

This Order revokes the one dated 25th of February, 1856, but re-enacts its provisions with some additions. The principal additions are contained in the 20th Article, which now includes in its prohibition all immoral or indecent acts or conduct, all improper familiarities between the sexes, and all drunkenness and acts of uncleanness.

The only other material alteration is the provision in the 6th Article that the Emigrant Sweepers for the day shall pump water into tanks or cisterns for the use of the water-closet.

It will be the duty of the Immigration Officers in the Colony under your government, whenever any infraction of this Order is brought under their notice, to take the necessary steps for putting it in force by proceeding against the offenders before the proper Tribunal.

I have, &c.,
NEWCASTLE.

Governor Sir George Grey, K.C.B.
&c. &c. &c.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of January, 1864:

PRESENT

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by the "Passengers Act, 1855," it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by an Order in Council, to prescribe such rules and regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit for preserving order, promoting health, and securing cleanliness and ventilation on board of passenger ships proceeding from the United Kingdom to any port or place in Her Majesty's possessions abroad, and the said rules and regulations from time to time in like manner to alter, amend, and revoke, as occasion may require:

And whereas it is expedient to revoke an Order in Council made at a Court held at Buckingham Palace on the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in virtue of the provisions of the said Act, and to make a new Order in Council :

Now therefore Her Majesty doth, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority vested in her by the said "Passengers Act, 1855," order, and it is hereby ordered that the said Order in Council of the twenty-fifth day of February one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six be and the same is hereby revoked ; and that the following shall henceforth be the rules for preserving order, for preserving health, and securing cleanliness and ventilation, to be observed on board of every passenger ship proceeding from the United Kingdom to any port or place in Her Majesty's possessions abroad out of Europe, and not being within the Mediterranean Sea.

2. It shall be the duty of the cook or cooks, appointed under the thirty-ninth section of the said "Passengers Act, 1855," to light the fires, and to take care that they be kept alight during the day ; and also to take care that each passenger or family of passengers shall have the use of the fire-place at proper hours, in an order to be fixed by the master.

But the single women shall do all necessary acts for keeping clean and in proper state their own compartment, where a separate compartment is allotted to them, and the occupant of each berth shall see his or her own berth is well brushed out.
7. Dinner shall commence at one o'clock p.m. and supper at six p.m.

12. The coppers and cooking utensils shall be cleaned every day, and the cisterns kept filled with water.
13. They shall be well shaken and aired on deck, weather permitting, at least twice a week.
14. The bottom boards of the berths, if not fixtures, shall be removed and dry-scrubbed, and, weather permitting, taken on deck at least twice a week.
15. Two days in the week shall be appointed by the master as washing days ; but no washing or drying of clothes shall on any account be permitted between decks.

17. No spirits or gunpowder shall be taken on board by any passenger ; and if either of those articles be discovered in the possession of a passenger, it shall be taken into the custody of the master during the voyage, and not returned to the passenger until he has landed or is on the point of landing.
18. No loose hay or straw shall be allowed below for any purpose.
19. No smoking shall be allowed between decks.
20. The following kinds of misconduct are hereby strictly prohibited ; that is to say, all immoral or indecent acts or conduct, taking improper liberties or using improper familiarity with the female passengers, using blasphemous, obscene, or indecent language, or language tending to a breach of the peace, swearing, gambling, drunkenness, fighting, disorderly, riotous, quarrelsome, or insubordinate conduct, also all deposits of filth or offensive acts of uncleanness in the between decks : Provided that no conviction under the said Passengers Act for any of the offences herein specified shall operate as a bar to any civil or criminal proceedings which may in the ordinary course of law be instituted for the same offence by any party aggrieved.

22. No sailors shall be allowed to remain on the passenger deck among the passengers, except on duty.
23. No passenger shall go to the ship's cook-house without special permission from the master, nor remain in the fore-castle among the sailors on any account.
24. In vessels not expressly required by the said "Passenger Act, 1855," to have on board such ventilating apparatus as therein mentioned, such other provision shall be made for ventilation as shall be required by the Emigration Officer at the port of embarkation, or, in his absence, by the officers of Customs.
25. And, to prevent all doubts in the construction of this Order in Council, it is hereby further ordered that the terms "United Kingdom," "Passenger," "Passenger Ship," "Passenger Deck," and "Master" shall herein have the same significations as are assigned to them respectively in the said "Passengers Act, 1855 ;" and, unless inconsistent with the context, words of one number shall import both numbers.

And the Most Noble the Duke of Newcastle, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

EDMOND HARRISON.
