Time and Place of Firing.

2. The firing to take place at such hours and places as the Officers commanding at the different stations may deem convenient; each competitor to fire his whole number of rounds on the same day, commencing on the 16th May next. Should the weather prove unfavourable at any time appointed, the firing may be postponed at the discretion of the Officer commanding at the station.

Who Eligible to Compete.

3. The firing to be open to any person sworn in and now serving as a Militiaman, except those sworn in for special service, and to all Members of Volunteer Corps (Officers included.) All intending competitors to send in their names on or before the 9th May next, to the Officer commanding the Corps to which they belong, or to the Adjutant, when lists are to be compiled from the names sent in; but if considered that any such person, whether a Militiaman or Volunteer, shall not have attended, when required, sufficiently regularly at drills, parades, training, or exercise, such person may be prevented from firing for the prizes.

List of Persons Firing.

4. A list giving each competitor a number only, to be given to the Officer and Marker, another list to be made out with each competitor's name and corresponding number on it, to be kept by the Officer commanding or Adjutant, and Officer stationed at the spot where the competitors fire from.

Competitors Absenting themselves.

5. Should any competitor absent himself when his turn comes to fire, he is to forfeit his chance, and a shot is to be fired in the air (which the marker will score as a miss), in order to keep the numbers on the lists correct.

Arms and Ammunition to be used.

6. Rifles and ammunition supplied by the Government.

Mode of Firing.

7. Without artificial rest. 1st range, standing or kneeling; 2nd range, standing or kneeling; 3rd range, in any position.

	Outer.	1
	Centre.	2
	Bull's Eye.	3
Targets to be used at the several distances.	Size of	Centre.	2 feet by 2 feet.
		Bull's Eye.	8 inches.
	Targets.	Two.
No. of Rounds to be fired at each distance	5 Rounds at each range.
Distances at which to fire.	300, 400, and 500 yards.

Wooden Targets (when required) to be ordered by the Officer commanding or Adjutant to be made at the different stations, 6 feet by 2 feet, painted as shown at the end.

Ties at Stations.

9. Ties to fire five rounds at five hundred yards at two Targets. In this case shots to be measured from the centre of the bull's eye. Ties to be fired for and decided at each station, previous to forwarding the lists and names to be placed on the lists in their proper order according to the number of points and hits made.

Ties.

10. Instructions will be forwarded for firing Ties between Provinces or Stations after all the lists have been received at the Deputy Adjutant General's Office in Auckland.

Hits.

11. Competitors to have one point added for each hit, in addition to the value of points made.

Ring Shots.

12. Competitors to have the benefit of any shot on the Ring.

Ricochets.

13. Any shots which touch the ground before hitting the Target (ricochets) to be noted R in the column for misses.

Score.

14. All hits to count according to where the bullet "first" strikes the Target.

Award of Score.

15. All differences as to points, &c., to be decided by the Officer commanding or Adjutant at the Station, before any returns of the firing are finally made up.

Commanding Officer.

16. Officers commanding Corps, or Adjutants, to be on the ground. One Officer to be appointed to call the names of competitors at the place of firing, and another to remain near the Target.

Marker.

17. A marker to be appointed by the Officer commanding, or Adjutant, at each Station, who will be under the Officer appointed to remain near the Target.

Medical Officer.

18. The Medical Officer to attend. Where there are no Surgeons of Militia receiving pay, a Medical Practitioner to be employed at £1 1s. per diem for each day he attends, the whole number not to exceed six.

Returns of Firing.

19. A return of the names of all competitors, with the number of points and hits scored by each, to be forwarded by the Officer commanding at each Station, to the Deputy Adjutant General at Auckland, according to the accompanying Form, as soon as possible after the firing has been concluded.

Precaution against Accidents.

20. The attention of commanding Officers and Adjutants is particularly called to the following rules to prevent accidents:—

No competitor is to cap or cock his rifle before coming to the spot from which he is to fire.

No competitor is to let the cock of his rifle down when an unexploded cap is on the nipple, but to keep it at half cock.

Competitors before firing are to take a few paces in front of all lookers on, and to see that no objects are in the line of fire.
