2nd November, 1864.

Provincial Secretary's Office,
Dunedin, 31st October, 1864.

AT the request of the Honorable the Commissioner of Trade and Customs of Victoria, the following notices are published for general information.

JAMES PATERSON,
Provincial Secretary.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.—Tide Signals, River Yarra.—Masters of vessels and others navigating the River Yarra are hereby informed that the Tidal Signals hitherto hoisted on board the Sir Harry Smith will, on and after the 12th instant, be discontinued, and the height of water in the Yarra be shown from that date by a self-acting tide-gauge, erected on the outer red dolphin at the entrance of the river.

To assist persons on board Vessels at a distance in ascertaining the height of water shown by the self-acting tide-gauge, six projecting arms are fixed on its south side, the upper edge of each arm coinciding with the lower part of each figure on the face of the tide-gauge, which commence with the ten feet mark.

N.B.—The top of the indicator, as it is moved up or down by the tide, shows on the face of the gauge the height of water over the shoalest part of the fairway.

CHARLES FERGUSON,
Chief Harbor Master.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.—Lightning Rocks, Port Phillip Heads.—In consequence of the frequent statements that have appeared in the public papers, that the rocks have been removed: Notice is hereby given that they still remain. The least water found on the shoalest head is eighteen (18) feet at low water.

The clearing marks for avoiding these dangers are as follow:—

Day Marks.

The Obelisk on Shortland's Bluff, in line with east tangent of High Light, N. 32° E., clears them to the westward. Point Lonsdale Flagstaff, open on either side of Point Lonsdale Telegraph House (white with a slate roof), clears them to the northward and southward.

Night Marks.

The light on Point Lonsdale showing green about N.W. by N. leads south of them. The same light showing red from W.N.W. to W. by N. leads north of them.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation 8° 16' east.]
