DUNEDIN, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1864.

No. 340.

PROCLAMATION.

Land Tax.

By His Honor JOHN HYDE HARRIS, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Otago.

WHEREAS it is desirable that Settlement upon the Rural Lands of this Province, both within and exterior to the boundaries of its Gold Fields, should be promoted, and that means should be provided for the beneficial employment of labor in the construction of such Public Works as are calculated to facilitate the development of its resources :

And whereas that portion of the law now in force for regulating the sale of Rural Lands within the Province, entitled the "Otago Waste Lands Act, (No. 2) 1863," whereby a tax of 2s. per acre, commencing from the day of purchase, and payable annually, is imposed upon all Rural Land purchased on and after the day on which such Act came into force, is calculated to retard the settlement of the country, its operation having already resulted in an almost total cessation of the sale of Rural Land throughout the Province.

Now therefore I, John Hyde Harris, the Superintendent of the Province of Otago, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, do hereby give notice and proclaim that the Provincial Government of Otago hereby undertake to repay to purchasers the Tax of 2s. per acre imposed by the aforesaid "Waste Lands Act (No. 2), 1863," in respect of all Lands which, between the 4th day of January, 1865, and the 5th day of April, 1865, may be purchased under the provisions of the "Otago Waste Lands Act, (No. 1) 1863," and the aforesaid "Otago Waste Lands Act, (No. 2) 1863."
