Sheep Inspector's Department,
Dunedin, 10th April, 1866.

SIR—I have the honour to forward annexed List of Returns received from Sheepowners after the Annual Report was published.

The total number of sheep in the Province for the year 1865 will be thus increased from one million two hundred and seventy-two thousand one hundred and thirty-five (1,272,135) to one million three hundred and forty-four thousand seven hundred and twenty-one (1,344,721), which shows an increase over last year's returns of one hundred and thirty-nine thousand two hundred and seventy (139,270.)

I trust that the stringent measures adopted by the Sub-Inspectors against those parties who omitted to send in their returns at the proper time, will prevent the necessity of having again to wait so long before the completion of my report.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
GEO. THOMSON,
Chief Inspector of Sheep.

His Honor the Superintendent of Otago.
