PROCLAMATION

Of the Alterations of the Boundaries of the Milton and Hillingdon Road Districts.

By His Honor THOMAS DICK, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Otago.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, intituled the "Otago Roads Ordinance, 1865," it is amongst other things enacted in the fifth Section thereof—That for the purposes of the said Ordinance, so much of the said Province as is subject to the provisions of the said Ordinance may from time to time be divided into districts, and until otherwise provided, pursuant to the provisions of the now recited Ordinance, there shall be sixty-one districts, which should be named as specified in the Schedule to the said Ordinance annexed, marked B: And it is also by the said fifth section provided that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent, with the advice and consent of the General Road Board, from time to time, by proclamation in the Gazette, to alter, vary, diminish, or enlarge the boundaries of any or all of such districts,

And whereas it is deemed advisable to alter the boundaries of the Milton and Hillingdon Road Districts by diminishing the boundaries of the Milton Road District, and enlarging the boundaries of the Hillingdon Road District in the manner and as described in the Schedules hereto; Now therefore I, Thomas Dick, Esquire, Superintendent of the said Province, with the advice and consent of the Otago General Road Board, do hereby proclaim and declare that the boundaries of the said Milton Road District shall from the day and date hereof be altered and diminished, and that the boundaries of the said district shall henceforth be as described in the first Schedule hereto: And I do hereby further proclaim and declare that the boundaries of the said Hillingdon Road District shall, from the day and date hereof, be altered and enlarged, and that the boundaries of the said district shall henceforth be as described in the second schedule hereto.

(From New Zealand Gazette, Dec. 14, 1866. No. 65.)

G. GREY, Governor.

IN exercise of the powers in me for this purpose vested by "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858," I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby appoint that the

in the Province of Otago, shall be a Warehousing Port for the purposes of "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858," and do hereby approve of the same as a Port for the importation of tobacco.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and dated this twenty-sixth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

J. C. RICHMOND.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 6th December, 1866.

THE following Acts passed by the General Assembly of New Zealand in the Session held in the twentieth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled—

"An Act for the Regulation of the Militia ;"
"An Act to Amend the Marine Board Act, 1863 ;"

having been laid before the Queen in conformity with the provisions of "The Constitution Act," His Excellency the Governor has been informed by the Secretary of State that Her Majesty will not be advised to exercise her power of disallowance with respect to these Acts.

E. W. STAFFORD.

BY virtue of the powers in me vested by "The Deeds Registration Amendment Act, 1863," I hereby make the following Regulations for the practice and procedure of the several Register of Deeds Offices throughout the Colony, to take effect on and after the first day of January, 1867.

1. Where any will has been registered, and it shall afterwards appear that such will relates to other lands in addition to those delineated upon or annexed thereto, a plan of such other lands, accompanied by a statutory declaration of some person competent to declare to the facts, may be registered in the Register of Deeds where such will has been registered, whereupon, the Registrar shall make the appropriate entries in the index or title books relating to such lands, and shall cause such plan and declaration to be recorded ; and upon the recorded copy of the will, so registered as aforesaid, shall make a memorandum referring to the page or folio of the record book where such plan and declaration shall be recorded, and such other entries or references as he may deem necessary or convenient. The aforesaid declaration shall refer by Registrar's number and date to the registered will, and shall state that, to the best of declarant's knowledge and belief, the lands described and delineated in the plan accompanying such declaration, are affected by the aforesaid registered will.

2. The word "will" in the foregoing regulation shall include the authenticated copy of any will registered under the fifth section of "The Registration of Deeds Amendment Act, 1860."

3. Whenever an indorsement has been or shall be made on a Crown Grant, after the same shall have been registered, certifying the day of the payment of the purchase money for the land comprised in such grant, or the date at which the grantee became entitled to a grant of such land, or describing more correctly the boundaries thereof, such indorsement may be registered by a copy thereof being indorsed on the recorded copy in the Register of Deeds wherein the grant may have been registered.

4. Every instrument in the Maori language presented for registration, shall be accompanied by a translation into English of the same, the correctness of which shall be certified by some Government Interpreter, or other officer of Government, to the satisfaction of the Registrar of Deeds, and the translation shall be registered as forming part of the original deed.

5. In addition to the registration fees fixed by Order in Council of the 19th April, 1864, and Regulation of the 17th August, 1866, there shall be chargeable the following fees—

For the registration of any plan accompanied by statutory declaration ...	1	0	0
