G. GREY, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time by proclamation in the

New Zealand Gazette, to divide the Colony of New Zealand for the purposes of the said Act into such and so many districts as he may think fit, and that every such district shall be called by a distinct name, and shall be a Registrar's district; and it is provided that the Governor may at any time revoke the whole or any part of such proclamation, and issue a new proclamation dividing the Colony or any part of it anew into districts, or increasing the number or altering the boundaries of districts as from time to time he may think requisite.

And whereas by proclamations duly made and issued, bearing date respectively the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and the 29th day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the Governor, in pursuance of the said recited power and authority, did constitute two districts for the purposes of the said Act, called respectively the "Nokomai" and the "Popotunoa" Districts, the boundaries of the "Nokomai" District, being set forth in the first named proclamation, which said proclamation came into operation and took effect on the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the boundaries of the "Popotunoa" District being set forth in the last-named proclamation, which said proclamation came into operation and took effect on the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

And whereas it is expedient to revoke so much of the said proclamations as relates to the said districts, and to divide anew the territory formerly comprised within such districts:

Now therefore I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said recited Act, do hereby revoke the said proclamation so far as relates to the "Nokomai" and "Popotunoa" Districts, and do proclaim and declare that the territory formerly comprised within such districts shall be, and is hereby divided for the purposes of the said Act into the two following districts, the names and boundaries whereof shall be as follows:—

POPOTUNOA DISTRICT

bounded by a line commencing at the junction of the Waikaka Stream with the River Mataura, thence eastwards along the southern and eastern boundaries of McNab's run No. 111 to Logan's run No. 175A, thence along the south-eastern boundary of Logan's run to the Pomahaka River, thence along the southern and eastern boundaries of M'Kenzie's run No. 163 to the north-western angle of the Gabriel's Registration District, thence southwards parallel to the Clutha River at a distance of twenty chains therefrom to a point opposite the junction of the Crookburn, thence to the Clutha River at the said junction, thence along the Clutha River to the northern angle of the West Clutha Hundred, thence along the north-western and south-western boundaries of the said hundred and the western boundary of Callin's Hundred to the ocean, thence westwards along the ocean beach to the mouth of the Mataura River, thence northwards up the said Mataura River to the junction of the Waikaka Stream, the commencing point.

NOKOMAI AND SWITZERS DISTRICT, bounded by a line from Lorn Peak near the southern extremity of Lake Whakatipu westwards to a point in the boundary of the Province of Southland, two miles above the junction of the Allanburn with the River Mataura which forms the said provincial boundary, thence southwards along the Mataura River downwards to the junction of the Waikaka Stream, thence eastwards along the southern and eastern boundary of M'Nab's run No. 111 to Logan's run No. 175A, thence along the south-eastern boundary of Logan's run to the Pomahaka River, thence along the southern and eastern boundary of M'Kenzie's run No. 163 to the north western angle of Gabriel's Registration District opposite to the junction of the Beaumont Creek with the River Clutha, thence northwards parallel to the said River Clutha to the source of the Spylawburn, thence direct to Wart Hill, thence by the Umbrella Mountains to a point due west of Jordan

Creek at its junction with the River Clutha, thence by the ranges to Rocky Mountain, thence direct to Lorn Peak, the commencing point.

And I do declare that this proclamation shall come into operation and take effect on the tenth day of October, 1867.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony at Wellington, this thirteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

E. W. STAFFORD.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. GREY, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, the third day of September, 1867.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Gold Fields Act, 1862," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, from time to time, to make, alter and revoke rules regulating the procedure and practice in the Courts to be established under the said Act, and in cases of appeal therefrom, and also to fix the fees to be taken in respect of proceedings therein: And whereas by Order in Council made the fifteenth day of September, 1863, certain rules regulating the procedure and practice in the Wardens' Courts within the Province of Otago, and in cases of appeal therefrom, were made, and certain alterations thereof have become advisable:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, doth hereby henceforth revoke such and such parts of the said rules and fees as differ from and are not included in the rules and fees respectively set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and doth hereby order that the rules and fees respectively set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed shall be the rules regulating the proceedings and practice in the Wardens' Courts within the Province of Otago, and in cases of appeal therefrom, and shall be the fees to be taken in respect of proceedings therein.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

WARDENS' COURTS.

Rules for regulating the procedure and practice of Wardens' Courts within the Province of Otago.

1. The schedule of forms and scale of fees hereunto annexed shall form part of these rules.

2. In construing these rules and forms, the following terms in inverted commas shall bear the several meanings set against them respectively:

"The Act." The Goldfields Act, 1866, 30 and 32 Victoria, No. 32

"Clerk," "Bailiff." The clerk, bailiff, or other person duly appointed and authorised to act as such respectively.

"Oath" shall include affirmamion.

Words importing the masculine gender only shall include females, and importing the singular number shall be extended to the plural number.

3. Every Warden's Court shall be holden at such place and times as the warden may appoint, and he may from time to time adjourn the Court.

4. There shall be for every Warden's Court a clerk, who shall be appointed by and hold office during the pleasure of the Governor, or other person or authority to whom or which shall, for the time being, be delegated for the Otago Gold Fields by the Governor all or such of the powers conferred by the Act, on the Governor, or the Governor in Council, as may by the said Act be duly delegated by the Governor.

5. It shall be lawful for the warden to appoint a deputy to act for the clerk as often as he shall be prevented by illness or other cause from acting in his office, and an entry of such appointment and the cause of the clerk's absence, shall be made in the minute book of the Court.

6. The clerk of Court shall issue all summonses, warrants, and writs of execution, keep an account of all proceedings, take charge of and keep an account, in a book to belong to the Court, of all fees and fines payable or paid into Court, and of all monies paid into and out of Court, adjourn the Court to any day he may deem convenient, when from any cause a Court cannot be held on the day appointed, and shall do and perform all other acts and duties properly incident to the office of clerk.

7. The parties in every complaint, action, or proceeding, shall appear and act personally, or by a barrister or solicitor of the Supreme Court, and not otherwise, unless under special circumstances the warden permits any party to appear by an agent, not being a barrister or solicitor.

8. No officer of the Court shall, either by himself or by any partner or person in his employment, be directly or indirectly engaged as counsel, attorney, or agent for any party in any proceeding in the Court.

9. Every action shall be commenced by a complaint and summons in the form or to the effect in the Schedule hereto annexed.

10. In the complaint and summons, there shall be set forth the christian and surname, and place of abode and calling, and description of the complainant, and likewise of the defendant; but when the christian and surname of the latter are not known, he may be designated by any name or names which he may have acquired by usage or reputation.

11. In every complaint and summons there shall be set forth briefly but distinctly and explicitly, the ground or cause of complaint; and if there be more than one ground or cause of complaint, each shall be stated substantively, and consecutively numbered, and there shall also be set forth the recovery or relief claimed.

12. Such summonses may be issued against any defendant residing or being without the district within which the Court has jurisdiction, provided it clearly appear from the complaint that the cause of action is otherwise within the jurisdiction of the Court.

13. The service of any summons shall be by delivering a copy of the same to the defendant (or if more than one, to each of them) personally; or if he cannot be found, by leaving such copy at his place of abode; or in case of co-partners, at the claim, station, or other place of business of the firm.

14. The summons may be served by any person whom the warden may authorise, and he shall, by a certificate under his hand, certify the time and mode of such service, to be endorsed on the summons without prejudice to the warden, taking proof thereof by oath if he thing fit.

15. Either party may obtain from the clerk of Court, summonses to witnesses, to be served at the option of such party, either by himself as his agent, or by the bailiff of the Court.

16. The parties shall be heard in open Court upon the day appointed, but the warden may adjourn the hearing of any cause in such manner and on such terms as to payment of costs or otherwise, as to him may seem fit.

17. If the complainant do not appear at the time appointed, and good cause for his absence be not shown, the warden will dismiss the complaint, and award a sum to the defendant as costs, or adjourn the hearing of the same.

18. If the defendant do not appear, the Court may either hold him as confessing the claim, and give judgment accordingly, or institute such inquiry into the cause of action as may be deemed necessary, and thereupon pronounce such decision as may be consistent with the ends of justice.

19. Every judgment entered up in pursuance of the verdict of assessors, shall have the same force and effect as if such judgment were entered in pursuance of the determination of the judgment of the Court alone.

20. A minute of every decision shall be entered by the warden, in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall be signed by the warden or by the assessors who concur in making such decision, and no formal order shall be necessary, and a copy of such minute shall, on demand, be given to any of the parties interested therein.

21. All the costs of any complaint or proceeding shall be taxed by the Court, and shall be paid or apportioned between the parties in such manner as to the warden shall seem fit, but in default of any special direction, such costs shall abide the event of the action.

22. The costs of witnesses, whether they have been examined or not, may, in the discretion of the warden be allowed, although they may not have been summoned.

23. The warden may make such order as he may think fit, concerning the times, and by what instalments any sum of money for which judgment shall be obtained shall be paid; and all such money shall be paid into Court, unless the warden shall otherwise direct.

24. The warden may at all times amend all defects and errors in any proceeding in this court.

25. Where by reason of the death or unavoidable absence of the warden a Court cannot be held, the clerk of the Court shall adjourn the Court to such day as he may deem convenient.
