DUNEDIN, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1869.

No. 596.

[WITH SUPPLEMENT.]

WARRANT.

WHEREAS by the second section of the Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled the "Diseased Cattle Act 1861," it is enacted that the Governor shall from time to time appoint proper persons at such ports and places as to him shall seem fit to be Inspectors of Diseased Cattle to perform the duties required by the said Act, and may from time to time remove such persons and appoint other persons in their respective places:

And by the said Act it is also enacted that the Governor in Council may, by warrant under his hand, from time to time delegate to the Superintendent of any Province within the Colony all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or Governor in Council by the said Act, subject to such regulation as he might think fit: And Whereas by "The Governor's Delegation Act 1867," it is enacted that within any Province in which by any Act or Ordinance it is provided that the Superintendent shall, in the administration of the Government therefore, act by and with the advice and consent of an Executive Council, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council under his hand and the public seal of the Colony, from time to time as occasion may require, to delegate to the Executive Government for the time being of such Province, subject or not to any restrictions or limitations as he may think fit, all or any of such powers as are or may be vested in the Governor, or Governor in Council, and which by any Act or Ordinance now in force, or by any Act passed during the then present Session of Parliament, may be delegated to the Superintendent of a Province, or to any person or persons by the Governor, or the Governor in Council, and in like manner to revoke any such delegation: And whereas by an Ordinance of the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, intituled the "Executive Council Ordinance 1861," it is provided that the Superintendent of the said Province shall, in the administration of the government thereof, act by and with the advice and consent of an Executive Council: And whereas the Governor bath, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, delegated to the Executive Government of the Province of Otago all such powers within the said Province as are by the "Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," and the "Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," vested in the Governor, or the Governor in Council, and by virtue thereof may be delegated to have and exercise such powers within the said Province, subject to the provisions of "The Governor's Delegation Act, 1867."

Now, therefore, I, JAMES MACANDREW, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Otago, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Province, do hereby, in virtue and in exercise of the powers delegated to the Executive Government of the said Province of Otago in this behalf, by this warrant appoint to be an Inspector of Diseased Cattle, within the Province of Otago, and to perform the duties required by the "Diseased Cattle Act 1861," within the said Province of Otago, without salary, and I declare that this appointment shall take effect from the twelfth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

Given under my hand at Dunedin, in the Province of Otago, and issued under the Public Seal of the said Province of Otago, in the presence of Julius Vogel, Esquire, and Arthur John Burns, Esquire, two of the Members of the Executive Council of the said Province, being also Members of the Provincial Council thereof, this seventeenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

JAMES MACANDREW,
Superintendent.

(L.S.)

JULIUS VOGEL,
A. J. BURNS,
Members of the Executive Council of the Province of Otago and of the Provincial Council thereof.
