No. 614.

[WITH SUPPLEMENT.]

NOTICE

Of certain Land in the Province of Otago having been reserved as an Endowment for the University of Otago.

By His Honor Captain Thomas Fraser, Deputy Superintendent of the Province of Otago.

WHEREAS the Provincial Council of Otago have under and by virtue of Section 62 of the "Otago Waste Lands Act, 1866" recommended that the lands hereinafter described should be reserved as an Endowment for the University of Otago, to be established in Dunedin under the "University of Otago Ordinance, 1869," and it is expedient that the said lands should be so reserved for that purpose: Now therefore I, THOMAS FRASER, Deputy Superintendent of the Province of Otago, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me in this behalf, do hereby publish and declare that I have made and dedicated the lands hereinafter described, Reserves for the purpose of an Endowment for the said University of Otago, henceforth to be severally known as the "University of Otago Reserve;" (that is to say)—

All that area situate in the Province of Otago, containing seventy thousand (70,000) acres, more or less; being Run 304, and part of Run 300B: bounded towards the north by Crown lands, and the remainder of Run 300B; towards the east by Run 391; towards the south by the Province of Southland and the Mararoa river; and towards the west by Run 301B, as the same is delineated on the Map of Runs in the Waiari District, deposited in the Provincial Survey Office, Dunedin: And also, all that area situate in the Province of Otago, containing thirty thousand (30,000) acres, more or less; being Run 79; bounded towards the north and east by Sutton's Stream and the Taieri River; towards the south by Deep Stream; and towards the west by Run 254, as the same is delineated on the Map of Runs in the south-eastern District, deposited in the Provincial Survey Office, Dunedin.

Dated at Dunedin, this fourteenth day of June, 1869.

THOMAS FRASER,
Deputy Superintendent.

HIS HONOR the Deputy Superintendent directs it to be notified that he has appointed

BRYAN CECIL HAGGITT, Esquire, to be Provincial Solicitor for the Province of Otago; appointment to date from 6th May last.

GEORGE M'LEAN,
Provincial Secretary.

14th June, 1869.

HIS HONOR the Deputy Superintendent directs it to be notified that he has appointed the following Members of the Police Force to be Inspectors of Slaughter Yards, as under—

BLUESKIN CEMETERY RULES AND REGULATIONS.—The following Rules and Regulations have been submitted to the Superintendent and Executive Council, and are published for general information.

5th June, 1869.

Rules and regulations made in pursuance of Section V of "The Cemetery Reserves Management Ordinance 1864," for the management of the public Cemetery at Blueskin.

1. The managers shall divide a portion or portions of the Cemetery into two classes, viz:—

2. Class 1st being ground of which the perpetual and exclusive right may be acquired subject to the conditions required by the "Cemetery Reserves Management Ordinance 1864." Ground of this class shall be staked off in lairs or lots of 8ft. x 4ft. These lairs shall be sold, one lot for twelve shillings and sixpence, two or more lots adjoining each other for ten shillings each, and a fee of two shillings and sixpence shall be also paid for registering every purchase. No purchaser to be allowed to purchase more than four lots.

3. Class 2nd being a portion or portions of ground set aside for the interment of persons not purchasers of or not having acquired a right to private ground.

The charge for permission to inter one person in this class of ground, without purchase, will be five shillings each interment, exclusive of the grave-digger's fees, hereinafter mentioned, and of the fee payable for registering every interment made within the Cemetery upon the Cemetery books, as also hereinafter provided. On ground of Class 2nd, no memorial or monument whatever will be allowed, and no grave within it shall, under any circumstances, be opened for any new interment, sooner than after the expiry of five years from the time of the first, or last interment in it as the case may be.

General Regulations and Bye-Laws.

1. All graves shall be six feet deep, but in the event of any purchasers of private ground desiring greater depth, an extra charge of three shillings per foot shall be paid by them.

2. The managers shall provide the necessary furniture and the attendance of a person within the Cemetery, for the purpose of properly conducting interments.

3. In all cases of intended interment, the person having the management or control of the same shall apply to the Clerk for the time being for warrant for such interment, which warrant the said Clerk is hereby authorised to grant upon payment to him of the following fees, viz:—

Digging grave (6ft. deep), attendance, and dressing ground 10s.

Registering interment and warrant .. 2s. 6d.

4. No interment will be permitted until warrant has been granted. All parties who contravene or attempt to contravene this regulation, may be prosecuted for so doing.

5. Applications for warrants must be made between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 o'clock p.m. Other applications to be made also during these hours.

6. The said warrant must be presented to the grave-digger or sexton, and when received by him shall be deemed sufficient authority and instruction for his proceeding with such interment.

7. The Clerk for the time being shall keep a registry book in which he shall enter from time to time the number of every lot sold, the name of the purchaser thereof, together with the date of the sale of the same. He shall also keep a record book in which he shall register the burials in the Cemetery, stating the numbers seriatim, the names of the parties interred (if known), and the numbers of the lairs in which each is interred, together with the date on which he gave warrant for interment.

8. The Clerk for the time being shall receive the purchase money for the sale of lairs or lots, and shall give a receipt for the same, which receipt shall state the name of the purchaser, the number (seriatim) of the purchase, the numbers of the lair or lairs purchased, and the date of purchase, and shall be held conclusive evidence of the purchase of the lair or lairs mentioned therein.

9. A record plan of the Cemetery shall be prepared, showing particularly the number and position of each lair, which plan shall be in the care of the Clerk for the time being.

10. Any purchaser of private ground in which no interment shall have taken place, may transfer his or her interest in said ground to any other person upon payment being made to the Clerk for the time being of a fee of five shillings for such transfer.

11. The moneys accruing from the sales of lairs and the fees shall, after deducting thereout all necessary expenses incurred and to be incurred, be expended in improving the Cemetery.

12. Parties who have friends interred in the Cemetery already, will be allowed to purchase, within three months, the ground in which these friends are buried, or as close thereto as the laying out of the Cemetery pathways will admit of. In the event of no purchase being made by these parties within three months from the date of the publication of these regulations, the ground will be considered as common or second class ground.
