NOTICE.

FREE NOMINATED IMMIGRATION.

(Extract from Order in Council, 15th October, 1873.)
REGULATIONS FOR THE CONDUCT OF IMMIGRATION TO NEW ZEALAND, ON THE NOMINATION OF IMMIGRANTS BY PERSONS RESIDENT THEREIN.

1. Any person resident in the Colony, desirous of nominating relatives or friends in Europe for passages to New Zealand, may do so by applying to an Immigration Officer, in the form at foot, copies of which can be obtained at all Immigration and Post Offices.

The persons nominated, if approved by the Immigration Officer and the officers of the Home Agency, will receive free passages to the Colony.

2. Every adult emigrant will be required, before embarkation, to pay, unless specially remitted by the Agent-General, 20s. (and children in proportion), for bedding, blankets, and mess utensils.

3. The cost of conveyance to the port (unless the Agent General agrees to pay it), and to the residence of their friends after their arrival in the Colony, must be defrayed by the emigrants themselves.

4. All the ships employed in this service will be denur the provisions of the Passenger Act.

5. It is to be distinctly understood, that notwithstanding the applications are forwarded to the Agent-General by the Immigration Officers, the Agent-General in London may refuse passages where the intending emigrants are in ill-health, or in any way unfitted, according to his judgment, to emigrate.

6. The Regulations, issued upon 21st April, 1873, for the payment of bonuses to the nominators upon the arrival of the nominated immigrants, are hereby rescinded; and no certificates for the payment of such bonuses will be given after the date hereof.

To the IMMIGRATION OFFICER,

I have the honor to state that, in my opinion, the persons named below would not be unwilling to emigrate to New Zealand, and would be desirable colonists.

I have, therefore, to advise that such persons should be communicated with, and invited to emigrate to the Colony.

I have, &c.,

NOTICE.—Whereas it is intended to stop up these Roads and portions of Roads which are severally described in the Schedule hereunder written, and are delineated on the maps or plans mentioned and referred to in the "Roads Diversion Ordinance, 1874," Session XXXIII., copies of which maps or plans, so far as they relate to the particular roads or portions of roads intended to be stopped up in the Road District specified in the Schedule, have been deposited at the public School mentioned immediately after the description of the respective roads, or portions of roads, intended to be stopped up in each district: Now, therefore, I, JAMES MACANDREW, Superintendent of the Province of Otago, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in me in that behalf by the "Roads Diversion Ordinance, 1874," Session No. XXXIII., do hereby give notice that all persons objecting to the stopping up of such roads or portions of roads, or any of them, are required to set forth a statement in writing of any well-grounded objections they may have to the stopping up of such roads, or portions of roads, and to leave such statement addressed to me at my office, in Dunedin, within sixty days from the first publication hereof, otherwise such objections will not be considered by me.

Proclamation constituting Dart Hundred.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Otago Waste Lands Act, 1872," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, if he think fit, on the recommendation of the Superintendent and Provincial Council, from time to time, by Proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, to constitute into a hundred any portion of the waste lands not forming any part of any hundred previously proclaimed, notwithstanding that such lands, or any part thereof, shall be comprised within any pastoral lease or license theretofore or thereafter to be granted by the Crown under any law regulating the occupation or disposal of waste lands, and whether or not the same shall have been included within the boundaries of any proclaimed gold field:

And whereas by the said Act it is also further provided, that no hundred shall be constituted which shall consist wholly of land unsuitable for agriculture and adapted for pastoral purposes only; and before any hundred shall be constituted, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Crown Lands and Chief Surveyor to certify to the Governor that in their opinion not less than one third part of the area of such hundred is land available for agriculture:

And whereas the Superintendent of the Province of Otago, and the Provincial Council of the said province have recommended that the waste lands particularly described in the Schedule hereto should be proclaimed to be a hundred under the provisions of the said Act: And whereas the said lands do not form part of any hundred previously proclaimed, and the Commissioner of Crown Lands and the Chief Surveyor of the said province have, in accordance with the hereinbefore recited provisions of the said Act, certified to the Governor, as to such lands hereinafter in the said Schedule described, that in their opinion not less than one third part of the area thereof is land available for agriculture:

And whereas it is expedient that effect should be given to the said recommendation of the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Otago:

Now therefore, I, Sir James Fergusson, Baronet, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority vested in me by the hereinbefore in part recited Act, do hereby proclaim that the waste lands particularly described in the Schedule hereto shall be, and the same are hereby, constituted into a hundred under and for the purposes of the said Act; and that the same shall be called or known by the name set above the description of the said hundred in the said Schedule.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Otago Waste Lands Act, 1872," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, if he think fit, on the recommendation of the Superintendent and Provincial Council, from time to time, by Proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, to constitute into a hundred any portion of the waste lands not forming any part of any hundred previously proclaimed, notwithstanding that such lands or any part thereof shall be comprised within any pastoral lease or license theretofore or thereafter to be granted by the Crown under any law regulating the occupation or disposal of waste lands, and whether or not the same shall have been included within the boundaries of any proclaimed gold field :

And whereas by the said Act it is also further provided that no hundred shall be constituted which shall consist wholly of land unsuitable for agriculture and adapted for pastoral purposes only, and before any hundred shall be constituted it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Crown Lands and Chief Surveyor to certify to the Governor that in their opinion not less than one third part of the area of such hundred is land available for agriculture :

And whereas the Superintendent of the Province of Otago and the Provincial Council of the said province have recommended that the waste lands particularly described in the Schedule hereto should be proclaimed to be a hundred under the provisions of the said Act : And whereas the said lands do not form part of any hundred previously proclaimed, and the Commissioner of Crown Lands and the Chief Surveyor of the said province have, in accordance with the hereinbefore recited provisions of the said Act, certified to the Governor, as to such lands hereinafter in the said Schedule described, that in their opinion not less than one third part of the area thereof is land available for agriculture :

And whereas it is expedient that effect should be given to the said recommendation of the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Otago :

Now, therefore, I, Sir James Fergusson, Baronet, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority vested in me by the hereinbefore in part recited Act, do hereby proclaim that the waste lands particularly described in the Schedule hereto shall be, and the same are hereby, constituted into a hundred under and for the purposes of the said Act ; and that the same shall be called or known by the name set above the description of the said hundred in the said Schedule.
