3. Every license shall commence and take effect on the first day of January, and shall continue in force one year, and for such license there shall be paid to the Waste Land Board the sum of two shillings and sixpence.

4. Each license holder shall be at liberty to depasture, free of assessment, one head of great cattle or five sheep for every ten acres of unenclosed land owned or occupied by him within the boundaries within which cattle may be depastured in the Hundred, provided that such license holder shall prove to the satisfaction of the Board that such freehold land is within such boundaries, and is open to all cattle depastured on the Hundred.

11. 15. No person shall remove cattle from beyond the boundary of the Hundred other than those belonging to him or for the removal of which he shall have due authority, under a penalty of £20, to be recovered in a summary way.

Any person who shall set fire to any herbage or grass upon Crown Lands within any Hundred, without the consent in writing of the Chief Commissioner of the Waste Land Board previously obtained, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of £5, to be recovered in a summary way; but such consent will not protect any person from the consequences of any loss of damage which may be sustained by any person by reason of the carelessness with which such burning of the Hundred may be performed.

18. The Waste Land Board may appoint one or more Rangers for each Hundred, whose duty shall be to see that these Regulations are carried into effect, and to report any neglect or breach thereof to the Waste Land Board.

19. The word cattle, in these Regulations shall mean all animals included within the meanings attached to great and small cattle by the "Otago Waste Lands Act, 1872," and shall include, except where the context clearly shows a contrary intention, a single head of great or small cattle, as well as any larger number.
