PROCLAMATION

By JAMES A. R. MENZIES, Esquire,
Superintendent of the Province of Southland.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, entitled the "Superintendent's Deputy Act, 1856" it is among other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent of any Province to appoint such person as he may think fit, being a registered elector in such Province, to be his Deputy, and as such to perform and exercise all the acts and powers (except such powers as are conferred by the Constitution Act, 15 and 16 Vic. c. 72), which may be exercised and performed by such Superintendent; and the acts of such Deputy-Superintendent, so far as authorised by such Proclamation, shall be as effectual in all respects as if performed by the Superintendent himself.

And whereas I am about to attend the Meeting of the General Assembly, and it is therefore necessary that I should appoint a registered elector to be my Deputy, to act during my absence, as provided by the said Act:

Now therefore, I, the said Superintendent, do hereby proclaim that I have appointed Matthew Scott, Esquire, to be my Deputy, and as such to perform and exercise during my absence from the Province, all the acts and powers (except such powers as are conferred by the Constitution Act, 15 and 16 Vic. c. 72), which may be performed and exercised by me.

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the Province of Southland, this twenty-third day of June, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

J. A. R. MENZIES,
Superintendent of the Province of Southland.

INVERCARGILL TOWN BOARD.

ELECTION OF ONE MEMBER.

WHEREAS in a notice published in the Southland Provincial Government Gazette, dated June 13th, 1862, appointing Saturday, 23rd June current, for the election of one member of the Town Board of Invercargill, Matthew Peice, Esq., was appointed to act as Returning Officer at the said election, it is hereby notified that the said appointment of Returning Officer is cancelled, and I hereby appoint Robert Marshall, Esq., of Invercargill, Returning Officer to preside at the said election.

J. A. R. MENZIES,
Superintendent.
Superintendent's Office,
Southland, 20th June 1862.

PROCLAMATION

By MATTHEW SCOTT, Esquire, Deputy-Superintendent of the Province of Southland.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Southland, in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, and in the second Session of the said Provincial Council, entitled "An Ordinance to establish and regulate Bridges and Ferries," it is among other things enacted that "it shall be lawful for the Superintendent to authorize Ferries to be established at convenient places on the rivers, lakes, or other waters within the Province of Southland, for the conveyance of passengers, animals, and goods across the same; and every Ferry shall be a public Ferry within the meaning of this Ordinance which shall be proclaimed to be such by the Superintendent by notification in the Provincial Government Gazette;" and whereas it is expedient to establish the Ferry hereinafter mentioned: Now therefore, I, the said Deputy-Superintendent, in pursuance of the powers vested in the Superintendent by the said recited Ordinance, do hereby authorise a Ferry to be established between the Jetty at Riverton, on one side of the River Aparima, and Lee's Point and Dallas' Point on the other side of the said River; and I do hereby proclaim and declare that the said Ferry so authorised to be established as aforesaid, shall be a Public Ferry within the meaning of the said recited Ordinance; and shall be called the "Aparima Ferry."

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the Province of Southland, at the Government Offices, Southland, this twenty-fourth day of June, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

MATTHEW SCOTT,

Deputy Superintendent, Province of Southland.
Superintendent's Office,
