INVERCARGILL TOWN BOARD.

ELECTION OF TWO MEMBERS.

IN pursuance of the provisions of the "Town Board Ordinance," 1863, I, the Superintendent of the Province of Southland, do hereby appoint the Electors entitled to vote for Members for the Town of Invercargill in the Provincial Council of Southland, to assemble upon Saturday, the seventeenth day of October, at noon, in the School-house, Invercargill, for the purpose of electing two legally qualified persons who shall be Members of the Town Board of Invercargill, under the provisions of the Ordinance aforesaid, in the room of William Robertson and H. A. Giller, resigned: And I hereby appoint Robert Mitchell, Esq., of Invercargill (Returning Officer), to preside at the said Meeting; and in the event of a poll being demanded, I hereby appoint the polling to take place in the Office of the said Board, on Monday, the nineteenth day of October ensuing.

J. A. R. MENZIES,
Superintendent.

Superintendent's Office,
Southland, 12th October, 1863.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and so forth:

To our trusty and well-beloved the Honorable the Colonial Secretary for the time being of our Colony of New Zealand; the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer for the time being of our said Colony; the Honorable the Native Minister for the time being of our said Colony; Christopher William Richmond, Esquire, one of the Judges of our Supreme Court of our said Colony; his Honor the Superintendent for the time being of the Province of Otago, and their Honors the Superintendents for the time being of the other Provinces in our said Colony; Major John Larkins Cheese Richardson, member of the House of Representatives of our said Colony, and member of the Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, in our said Colony; James Hector, Esquire, Medicine Doctor; Thomas Dick, Esquire, member of the House of Representatives of our said Colony, and member of the Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, in our said Colony; Thomas Bannatyne Gillies, Esquire, member of the House of Representatives of our said Colony; James Paterson, Esquire, member of the House of Representatives of our said Colony, and member of the Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, in our said Colony; William Mason, Esquire, member of the House of Representatives of our said Colony; Edward Bowes Cargill, Esquire, member of the House of Representatives of our said Colony, and member of the Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, in our said Colony; John Cargill, Esquire, member of the Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, in our said Colony; Richard Bowden Martin, Esquire, James Rattray, Esquire, Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce in the City of Dunedin, in our said Colony; Alfred Eccles, Esquire, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons; Henry Clapcott, Esquire; Richard Seaward Cantrell, Esquire; William Hunter Reynolds, Esquire, member of the House of Representatives of our said Colony, and member of the Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, in our said Colony; and Julius Vogel, Esquire, member of the Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, in our said Colony;

GREETING :

WHEREAS it has been proposed that an Exhibition of Agricultural and Industrial Products and Manufactures of our Colony of New Zealand, and such Products and Manufactures of other Countries as may in the opinion of the Commissioners be eminently calculated to be useful in the development of our said Colony, should be held at Dunedin, in the Province of Otago, in our said Colony: And whereas it has been further proposed that a Commission should be appointed for the purpose of devising and carrying out such Exhibition;

Now know you that we, reposing special trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have thought fit to constitute and appoint, and by these presents do constitute and appoint you, the Superintendent for the time being of the said Province of Otago, President of the said Commission; the Colonial Secretary for the time being of the said Colony, the Colonial Treasurer for the time being of the said Colony, the Native

Minister for the time being of the said Colony, the Superintendents for the time being of the other Provinces of the said Colony, Christopher William Richmond, Esquire, and Major John Larkins Cheese Richardson, Vice-Presidents of the said Commission; and James Hector, Thomas Dick, Thomas Bannatyne Gillies, James Paterson, William Mason, Edward Bowes Cargill, John Cargill, Richard Bowden Martin, James Rattray, Alfred Eccles, Henry Clapcott, Richard Seaward Cantrell, William Hunter Reynolds, and Julius Vogel, Esquires, to be our Commissioners to devise and carry out the details necessary to facilitate the Exhibition in Dunedin, in our Colony of New Zealand, of articles the produce and manufacture of our said Colony, and of such other Countries as you may determine: And for the purpose of aiding you in the execution of the premises, we hereby appoint our trusty and well-beloved Thomas Dick aforesaid to be Honorary Treasurer to this our Commission, and our trusty and well-beloved Alfred Eccles aforesaid to be Honorary Secretary to this our commission: And we do by these presents give and grant to you or any three or more of you full power and authority to carry into effect the purposes of this our commission by all lawful ways and means whatsoever: And we do hereby authorise the Superintendents respectively of the Provinces of our said Colony to appoint in the several Provinces local Committees of such persons as each said Superintendent may consider it expedient to appoint for the purpose of encouraging the production of articles to be exhibited, of transmitting them to Dunedin, and of conducting communication between Exhibitors and the Commissioners: And we do by these presents ordain that this our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, shall and may from time to time, and at any place or places, proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment:

In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent, and the seal of our said Colony to be hereunto affixed:

Witness our trusty and well-beloved Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over our Colony of New Zealand and its dependencies, and Vice-

Admiral of the, same at the Government House at Auckland, in New Zealand aforesaid, the Fifth day of September, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and in the Twenty-seventh Year of our Reign.

G. GREY.

By His Excellency's command,
ALFRED DOMETT.

Delegation of the Governor's powers, under "The Gold Fields Act, 1862," to the Superintendent of Southland.

By his Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same,
&c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intitled, "The Gold Fields Act, 1862," it is provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council under his hand and the Public Seal of the Colony, from time to time to delegate to the Superintendent of any Province, or to such other person as the Governor may deem fit, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor, or the Governor in Council, by the said Act, except the powers conferred by sections Nineteen, Thirty-one, Thirty-two, Thirty-three, and Sixty-one thereof, subject or not to any limitations or restrictions as he may think fit, and in like manner to alter or revoke any such powers;

Now, therefore, I, Sir GEORGE GREY, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, and in exercise of the power and authority for this purpose in me vested, Do hereby Delegate unto

JAMES ALEXANDER ROBERTSON MENZIES, Esquire,

as Superintendent of the Province of Southland, all the powers vested in me under or by virtue of the "Gold Fields Act, 1862," except the powers contained in Sections Nineteen, Thirty-one, Thirty-two, Thirty-three, and Sixty-one of the said Act, to have, hold, and exercise within the Province of Southland the said powers hereby given the said James Alexander Robertson Menzies so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, and no longer:

Provided always that copies of all Rules and Regulations made under the delegation aforesaid, shall be forthwith transmitted to the Colonial Secretary, in order that the same may be laid before the General Assembly in accordance with the provisions of the Sixty-third clause of the "Gold Fields Act, 1862."

Given under my hand at the Government House, at Auckland, and issued under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, this fifteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

G. GREY.

By His Excellency's command,
ALFRED DOMETT.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Auckland, 15th September, 1863.
