PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intitled "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1858," provision is made for the regulation and conduct of elections of Members of the House of Representatives. And whereas by the said Act, after reciting that unforeseen difficulties or delays may arise in carrying into effect the several provisions in the said Act contained, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to extend the time allowed for the holding of any such election, or for the return of the writ issued for the same, notwithstanding the day may have passed on which such writ shall be returnable, and to adopt or cause to be adopted such measures as may be necessary to remove any obstacle of a technical or formal nature by which the due course of any such election may have been impeded, and to supply any deficiency that may otherwise affect the same. And whereas by the "The Maori Representation Act, 1867," provision is made for the representation in the said House of Representatives of Her Majesty's subjects of the race of the Native Aboriginal inhabitants of New Zealand. And whereas by the said last-mentioned Act, amongst other electoral districts for the return of Members to represent Her Majesty's subjects of the race aforesaid in the said House of Representatives, is constituted and defined an electoral district called the Southern Maori Electoral District, for the return of one Member of the House of Representatives aforesaid. And whereas by the said last-mentioned Act it is also enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by proclamation to be published in the New Zealand Gazette, to make provision for the appointing of Returning Officers, and for issuing, collecting and returning the necessary writs for election of Members, and otherwise for ensuring the orderly, effective, and impartial conduct of each election under the said last-mentioned Act. And whereas under and by virtue of the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, a writ was directed to the Returning Officer duly appointed for the election of a Member for the said Southern Maori Electoral District, and the time therein limited for the return of such writ was the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight. And whereas the sixth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, was duly appointed as the day on which a poll should be taken, but unforeseen difficulties and delays have arisen in taking the said poll at Ruapuke, one of the duly appointed polling places within and for the said electoral district;

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, doth hereby extend the time allowed for holding the election of a Member of the House of Representatives for the Southern Maori Electoral District aforesaid, until the fifteenth day of July, and with the like advice and consent doth hereby extend the time allowed for the return of the writ issued for such election until the thirty-first day of July next; and with the like advice and consent doth order and direct that a poll shall be taken at the duly appointed place at Ruapuke aforesaid, on such days as shall be appointed by the Returning Officer of the said district, and of which day the said Returning Officer shall give not less than five nor more than fifty days notice; and that for the purpose of taking such poll the Returning Officer may appoint such Deputy Returning Officer, and Registration Officer, as he may deem necessary, and any previous appointment of a Deputy Returning Officer, or Registration Officer at Ruapuke aforesaid, may revoke. And His Excellency the Governor, with the like advice and consent, doth hereby further order and direct that the said poll, and all proceedings subsequent thereto, shall be taken in accordance with the provisions of "The Maori Representation Act, 1867;" and any regulations issued or made under the authority of the same in like manner as if the said writ had been originally made returnable on the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Auckland, this first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.
