BYELAWS PASSED BY THE WARDENS OF THE ORETI HUNDRED, 18TH JUNE 1868.

I.—No Cattle of any description shall be depastured except by License Holders.

II.—Sheep shall be depastured only on such portions of the Oreti Hundreds as the Wardens may direct.

III.—No Entire Horse over twelve months old shall be depastured without special permission of the Wardens.

IV.—No Bull over six month's old shall be depastured without special permission of the Wardens, and no Bull shall be at large for a longer period than three years.

V.—All License Holders shall on or before 15th July register with the nearest Warden a statement of the number of cattle and horses depastured by them with their description, and the brands with which they are marked.

VI.—Before removing cattle owners shall give notice in writing to the nearest Warden.

VII.—Any person about to bring cattle on the run shall one week before so doing furnish to the nearest Warden notice in writing, with such information as shall give opportunity for inspection of the cattle.

VIII.—No person shall be allowed to depasture more than one head of great cattle, for every five acres of land occupied by him, or one head of small cattle for every acre occupied by him within the Hundred.

IX.—All stray cattle shall be impounded.

X.—The penalty for any breach of the foregoing Bye-Laws shall be any sum not exceeding five pounds, to be recovered in a summary manner in accordance with the 45th Clause of "The Southland Waste Lands Act, 1865."

Chief Commissioner.

June 19th, 1868.

BYE-LAWS PASSED BY THE WARDENS OF THE FOREST HILL HUNDRED AT A MEETING HELD ON 27TH MAY, 1868.

I.—That any person depasturing stock of any description on the said Hundred, who shall not have taken out a depasturing license, shall forfeit and pay for such offence a sum not exceeding five pounds, and the cattle may be impounded in any public pound.

II.—That no person shall be allowed to depasture more than one head of cattle over the age of six months for every three acres of land, which he or she occupies in the Hundred; and any person depasturing more than specified, shall forfeit and pay for any such offence a sum not exceeding five pounds.

III.—All stock over the age of six months depastured on the Hundred, shall be branded with the registered brand of the owners thereof, and any unbranded stock found on the Hundred above the age of six months may be impounded, and dealt with according to law.

IV.—No diseased cattle shall be depastured on the Hundred, and any one who shall turn out or depasture any diseased beast, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding five pounds.

V.—That no bull over the age of six months or entire horse over the age of twelve months, shall be allowed to depasture on the Hundred without a written permission from the Wardens or a majority of them, and any licenseholder failing or neglecting to comply with the same, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of five pounds.

VI.—Any person wilfully disturbing or harrasing stock depasturing on the Hundred, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding five pounds, provided always that a holder of a depasturing license within the Hundred, or any person duly authorised in his or her behalf, may drive such stock for the purpose of collecting such as belong to him or her, and for the free and legitimate use of his or her right of pasturage within the Hundred: but in the event of it being necessary for such purpose to drive any stock belonging to any other person a greater distance than half a mile, the person so driving such stock must take them to the nearest available stockyard, and there separate his or her own from those of any other person, and return the latter to the place from which they were driven, failing to do so shall forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding five pounds.

VII.—Any person removing stock beyond the Hundred, other than those belonging to him or her, or for the removal of which he or she shall not have an authority, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding five pounds,

VIII.—Any stock not being the property of, or which are not branded with the registered brand of the holder of license under which they are depastured or which are depastured on the Hundred in contradiction of any bye-law duly passed, may be impounded, and the owner or custodian of such stock may be proceeded against for trespass, and shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding five pounds.

IX.—That any person intending to travel with or drive cattle through the said Hundred into any adjoining Hundred, freehold or leasehold, shall give not less than twenty-four hours notice in writing, stating the number, brands, and other particulars of such stock, to the nearest Warden, who, upon being satisfied that such stock are free from disease, shall give a written authority to the owner or party in charge of such stock for driving through the said Hundred; provided always that cattle of bona fide travellers on their journey when turned out, be not considered trespassers if not more than three nights in the same neighborhood, failing to do so, shall forfeit, and pay for every such offence, a sum not exceeding five pounds.

X.—That any sheep running upon unenclosed land in the said Hundred, shall be removed within twenty-eight days of publication of the said bye-laws; also, any cattle not being the property of freeholders, shall, if not removed within the same period, be impounded and dealt with according to law.

XI.—All, or any of the acts authorised by these bye-laws, may be enforced by any of the Wardens, Rangers, or other person duly appointed or authorised in that behalf.

The above Bye-laws have been approved of and passed by us this 27th day May, 1868.

Published in pursuance of "Diseased
Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865."

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," section four, the Governor may, by any Order in Council, from time to time, annul, make void, or alter, or vary, and make anew any Orders in Council, regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations made and published by the Governor under the authority of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," or of this Act, or by the Superintendent of any Province, under or in pursuance of any power delegated to him under any of the powers of delegation contained in the said Act. And whereas by section five of the said Amendment Act, "as to regulations, appointments, and prohibitory and other declarations made by Superintendents of Provinces, in pursuance of any powers delegated under the powers of delegation contained in the said Act or this Act, the power of annulling, making void, or altering, or varying and making anew any such regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations vested in the Governor by this Act, may from time to time be delegated by the Governor in Council by warrant under his hand to the Superintendent of any Province."

And whereas the said Governor hath, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, delegated to John Parkin Taylor, Esq., so long as he shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Southland, all the powers which by the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act the Governor in Council is authorised to delegate.

Now therefore I, the said John Parkin Taylor, by virtue of such powers in me vested, do hereby proclaim and declare, that after the date of the publication hereof in the New Zealand Gazette, the several Colonies of Australia, (that is to say), the Colony of Victoria, of New South Wales, of Queensland, of South Australia, and Western Australia, as well as the Colony of Tasmania, and the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, shall be deemed to be infected districts within the meaning of the said Acts; and I do further proclaim and declare the following regulations for prohibiting the importation of Cattle into the Province of Southland from such districts, and for the landing or driving of such cattle, and for the destroying of cattle imported, landed, or driven contrary to these regulations:—

1. If any person shall import any cattle from either or any of the said infected districts into the Province of Southland, unless upon quarantine ground, and after having obtained from an inspector of cattle a quarantine certificate, he shall be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds for every head of cattle so imported into the Province of Southland.

2. If any person shall land or cause to be landed, or assist in landing any cattle coming from either of the said infected districts in or upon any part of the Province of Southland, unless upon a quarantine ground, and after having obtained a quarantine certificate, he shall be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds for every head of cattle so landed.

3. It shall be lawful for and the duty of any inspector of cattle or police constable to destroy or cause to be destroyed any diseased cattle which shall be imported or landed contrary to these regulations.

4. If any person shall wilfully impede or obstruct any inspector of cattle or any police constable acting under the authority of these regulations, every person so offending may be taken before two Justices of the Peace, and shall be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds.

5. These regulations shall take effect from and after the date of publication in the New Zealand Gazette.

Invercargill, this sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

JOHN P. TAYLOR,
Superintendent.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," section four, the Governor may, by any Order in Council, from time to time, annul, make void, or alter or vary and make anew any Orders in Council, regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations, made and published by the Governor, under the authority of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," or of this Act, or by the Superintendent of any Province, under or in pursuance of any power delegated to him under any of the powers of delegation contained in the said Act. And whereas by section five of the said Amendment Act, "as to regulations, appointments, and prohibitory and other declarations made by Superintendents of Provinces, in pursuance of any power delegated under the powers of delegation contained in the said Act, or this Act, the power of annulling, making void, or altering or varying and making anew any such regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations, vested in the Governor by this Act, may, from time to time, be delegated by the Governor in Council, by warrant under his hand, to Superintendent of any Province."

And whereas the said Governor hath, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, delegated to John Parkin Taylor, Esq., so long as he shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Southland, all the powers which, by the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act, the Governor in Council is authorised so to delegate:

Now therefore, I, John Parkin Taylor, by virtue of such powers in me vested, do hereby proclaim and declare that, after the date of the publication hereof in the "New Zealand Gazette," all that portion of the Middle Island of New Zealand, lying to the east of Mataura River, from the mouth to the source thereof; also all that portion lying north of a line running due west from Eyre Peak to the Mararoa River, and a line drawn from thence to the mouth of a creek running into the Te Anau Lake, called Henry Creek; also all that portion lying west of the Te Anau and Manawapouri Lakes, and the left bank of the Waiau River, excepting Runs No. 172, 303, 413, in the Province of Otago; also all the Provinces in the North Island of New Zealand, the Chatham Islands, Ruapuki, and other islands in Foveaux Straits, shall be deemed to be infected districts within the meaning of the said Acts; and I do further proclaim and declare the following regulations for the destruction of diseased cattle, and for the preventing and regulating the removal or transportation of cattle from the said several infected districts into the Province of Southland.

1. If any person shall import, drive, or remove, or cause to be imported, driven, or removed, or assist in driving or removing any cattle from either of the said infected districts into the Province of Southland, except upon quarantine ground, and the authority of a quarantine certificate, such person shall be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds for every head of cattle so imported, driven, or removed.

2. It shall be lawful for any inspector of cattle or police constable to destroy, or cause to be destroyed, any cattle which shall pass into this Province from either of the said districts, contrary to these regulations.

3. If any person shall wilfully impede or obstruct any inspector, or any police constable acting under the authority of these regulations, every person so offending may be taken before two Justices of the Peace, and shall be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds.

4. These regulations shall take effect from and after the date of publication in the "New Zealand Gazette."

Given under my hand, at Invercargill, this sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.
