VI. Any person wilfully disturbing or harassing stock depasturing on the Hundred shall forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding five pounds, provided always that a holder of a depasturing license within the Hundred, or any person duly authorised in his or her behalf, may drive such stock for the purpose of collecting such as belong to him or her, and for the free and legitimate use of his or her right of pasturage within the Hundred; but in the event of it being necessary for such purpose to drive any stock belonging to any other person a greater distance than half a mile, the person so driving such stock must take them to the nearest available stockyard and there separate his or her own from those of any other person, and return the latter to the place from which they were driven, failing to do which he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding five pounds.

IX. That any person intending to travel with or drive cattle through the said Hundred into any adjoining Hundred, freehold or leasehold, shall give not less than twenty-four hours' notice in writing stating the number, brands, and other particulars of such stock to the nearest Warden, who upon being satisfied that such stock are free from disease, shall give a written authority to the owner or party in charge of such stock for driving through the said Hundred: provided always that cattle of bona fide travellers on their journey, when turned out, be not considered trespassers, if not more than three nights in the same neighborhood; failing to do so shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding five pounds.

All or any of the Acts authorised by these bye-laws may be enforced by any two of the Wardens or other person duly appointed or authorised in that behalf: provided always that nothing contained in the above bye-laws shall be held or construed to authorise the impounding of any sheep or cattle which are being depastured on any land, whether fenced or not, which is the property of, or is lawfully occupied by the owner of such sheep or cattle.
