(Province of Taranaki).

Published by Authority.

Vol. X.] NEW PLYMOUTH, FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 1862. [No 2.

PROCLAMATION

BY Charles Brown, Esq., Superintendent of the Province of Taranaki.

WHEREAS in the tenth Session of the Provincial Council of Taranaki, held in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, an Ordinance was passed intituled the "Public Cemetery Ordinance, 1861," and whereas the said Ordinance was on the twenty-eight day of October, 1861, presented to me for the assent of His Excellency the Governor, and was then reserved by me for the signification of His Excellency's pleasure thereon, and whereas His Excellency has been pleased to assent to the said Ordinance. Now, therefore, I do hereby proclaim that His Excellency Sir George Grey, the Administrator of the Government of New Zealand, has assented to the said Ordinance, and that I received the signification of His Excellency's assent on the sixth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

Given under my hand at New Plymouth this fourteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

CHARLES BROWN,
Superintendent.

WILLIAM NORTHCROFT,
Provincial Secretary.

PROCLAMATION.

WARRANT delegating to the Superintendent of the Province of Taranaki, certain powers vested in the Governor by "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861."

WHEREAS by "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," it was provided that the Governor in Council might by Warrant under his hand from time to time delegate to the Superintendent of any Province within the said Colony all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or Governor in Council by the said Act subject to such Regulations as he might think fit and might from time to time rescind such delegation.

Now, therefore, I, Thomas Gore Browne, the Governor of the said Colony of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, and in pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority do by this Warrant under my hand delegate to Charles Brown, Esquire, so long as he shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Taranaki in the said Colony, the several powers vested in me by the second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth and tenth sections of the said Act subject to be rescinded as in the said Act provided and subject to the Regulations of even date herewith, and to any other Regulations to be from time to time duly made.

Given under my hand at the Government House at Auckland this first day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

T. GORE BROWNE.

By His Excellency's Command,
WILLIAM FOX.

PROCLAMATION

BY Charles Brown, Esq., Superintendent of the Province of Taranaki.

WHEREAS by Warrant dated 1st October, 1861, the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, delegated to Charles Brown, Esquire, so long as he shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Taranaki, the several powers vested in the Governor by the second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth, and tenth sections of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," subject to be rescinded as in the said Act provided, and subject to the Regulations of even date therewith, and to any other Regulations to be from time to time duly made.

Now, therefore, I, the said Charles Brown, by virtue of such powers in me vested, do hereby proclaim and declare that from and after the date hereof, the several Colonies of Australia, that is to say, Victoria, New South Wales, Queensland, South Australia and Western Australia, as well as the Colony of Tasmania, and the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and the islands of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be deemed to be infected districts within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act, and that no Cattle shall be allowed to be imported from such districts: provided that the Superintendent may allow any Cattle to be landed from vessels from the islands of Great Britain and Ireland, subject to such conditions and restrictions as he may deem expedient, and the circumstances of the case require.

And I do further proclaim and declare that the Provinces of Otago and Southland in the Colony of New Zealand, shall be deemed to be infected districts within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act, and that no Cattle shall be allowed to be imported from the said Provinces.

Given under my hand at New Plymouth this sixteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

CHARLES BROWN,
Superintendent.
