“BRANDING OF CATTLE ORDINANCE, 1867.”

NOTICE

Constituting a Registrar's District under the "Branding of Cattle Ordinance, 1867."

Superintendent's Office,
April 17, 1867.

WHEREAS by the 2nd clause of the "Branding of Cattle Ordinance, 1867," it is provided that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent, amongst other things, to constitute Districts within which the provisions of the said Ordinance shall be in force. Now therefore I, THOMAS KELLY, Esquire, Deputy Superintendent of the Province of Taranaki, in exercise of the before recited authority, constitute the undermentioned block of land a Registrar's District, under the provisions of the said recited Ordinance.

REGISTRAR'S DISTRICT.

The block of land bounded by the sea beach from the northern boundary of the Clifton District to the Stoney River, thence along the Stoney River to the summit of Mount Egmont, thence to the south-east corner of section 76, Urenui District, thence to the most south-eastern point of section No. 34, Clifton District, thence by the Mimi River to the inland boundary of the said District, thence along the said boundary to the sea beach.

THOMAS KELLY,
Deputy Superintendent.

Superintendent's Office,
New Plymouth, April 18, 1867.

I HEREBY appoint
WILLIAM HATELY, to be Chief Registrar of Brands under the "Branding of Cattle Ordinance, 1867."

T. KELLY,
Deputy Superintendent.

BRANDING OF CATTLE
ORDINANCE, 1865.

Appointing places for exposing Cattle for public inspection.

Superintendent's Office,
New Plymouth, April 18, 1867.

IN exercise of the powers vested in the Superintendent by the "Branding of Cattle Ordinance, 1865," I do hereby declare that I have appointed the place below specified to be a place at which Cattle shall be exposed for public inspection in accordance with the provisions of the said Ordinance.

The Stockyard on Section No. 2, Tarururangi Block.

T. KELLY,
Deputy Superintendent.

“ROADS AND BRIDGES ORDINANCE, 1858.”

NOTICE

Constituting No. 13 (Tarurutangi) District under the “Roads and Bridges Ordinance, 1858.”

Superintendent's Office,
April 25, 1867.

WHEREAS by the 2nd clause of the “Roads and Bridges Ordinance, 1858,” it is provided that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent, amongst other things, to constitute Districts within which the provisions of the said Ordinance shall be in force. Provided that no such notice shall at any time be published without the previous approval of the Provincial Council. Now therefore I, THOMAS KELLY, Esquire, Deputy Superintendent of the Province of Taranaki, in exercise of the before recited authority, do hereby, with the approval of the Provincial Council, constitute the undermentioned block of land, known as the Tarurutangi District, to be District No. 13, under the provisions of the said recited Ordinance.

ROAD DISTRICT NO. 13.

The block of land bounded on the eastern side by the boundary line of the Tarurutangi block from the Mangoraka River to the Waiongana River, thence in a straight line parallel to the surveyed tie line to the Mangoraka River, thence along the said river to the eastern boundary.

THOMAS KELLY,
Deputy Superintendent.

G. GREY, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act made and enacted in the Imperial Parliament holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled “An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand,” it is amongst other things enacted, that whenever any Bill shall have been assented to by the Superintendent, as in the said Act provided, the Superintendent shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic copy thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time within three months after any such Bill shall have been received by him, to declare by proclamation his disallowance of such Bill; and that any such disallowance shall make void and annul the same from and after the day of the date of such proclamation, or any subsequent day to be named therein.

And whereas the Ordinance hereinafter specified has been enacted by the Superintendent of Taranaki with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, and the said Ordinance was received by the Governor on the twenty-second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinance should be disallowed:

Now therefore, I, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority vested in me in that behalf by the said recited Act of Parliament, do hereby proclaim and declare my disallowance of the following Ordinance passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Taranaki, namely:—

“Wild Cattle Ordinance, 1867.”

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this twentieth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

E. W. STAFFORD,
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 21st March, 1867.

THE following Ordinance passed by the Provincial Council, and assented to by the Superintendent of the Province of Taranaki, intituled—

“The Appropriation Ordinance, 1867;”

having been laid before the Governor, His Excellency has been pleased to leave the same to its operation.

E. W. STAFFORD.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington,
the fifth day of April, 1867.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by “The New Zealand Settlements Act Amendment Act, 1866,” it is provided that all lands taken under the authority of “The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863,” and “The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865,” or either of them, and sold and disposed of under the authority of the said first recited Act, intituled "The New Zealand Settlements Acts Amendment Act, 1866," shall be sold or disposed of under regulations to be made by the Governor in Council, which regulations shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette.

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in pursuance of the authority vested in him in that behalf, by the said first recited Act, doth hereby, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony of New Zealand, make the following regulations for the sale and disposal of lands within the Ngatiawa, Middle Taranaki, or Ngatiruanui Districts, which have been taken under the authority of the said recited Acts, or either of them.

Regulations for the sale and disposal of Lands taken for settlement under "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863."

1. Until sold, granted, reserved, or otherwise disposed of by the Government, the portions of Confiscated Lands which have been or may hereafter be laid out for sale in the Ngatiawa, Middle Taranaki, or Ngatiruanui Districts, may be occupied by settlers, on obtaining a license from the Commissioner of Crown Lands of the Province in which such lands are situate, upon approval in each case of the Honorable the Colonial Secretary.

2. Such license shall not in any case be for more than one hundred acres, and shall give no right to the soil, or the timber upon it, nor shall it prevent a right-of-way being laid out across such land, where it may be decided to be necessary by the Commissioner of Crown Lands, acting under the authority of the Honorable Colonial Secretary; and every license shall immediately determine over any land which may be sold, granted, reserved, or otherwise disposed of by the Government.

3. When any lands so occupied shall have been built upon or fenced, or otherwise improved, the value of such improvements, to be assessed by a valuer appointed by the Government, shall be added to the upset price of the land before sale by the Government, and shall be paid over to the occupier immediately after the sale, and the occupier shall thereupon give up all improvements to the purchaser; or if the occupier be the purchaser, the value shall be deducted from the total sum payable by him to the Government.

4. In the case of land so occupied which may be required and taken by the Government for public purposes, the occupier shall have the right of removing any buildings, or other improvements, within one month of the time when notice shall have been given to do so.

5. Every application for a license must specify the boundaries of the land to be occupied in such manner that its position can be clearly identified, and it shall be at the discretion of the Commissioner of Crown Lands, subject to the approval of the Honorable Colonial Secretary, to grant the license or not, or with such conditions as the circumstances may seem to warrant.

6. No license shall be transferable, and non-occupation shall render the licensee liable to the forfeiture of the license and all improvements on the land. The Government to be the sole judge of the question of occupation, and they may re-enter and resume possession at any time without any claim for compensation, in case the conditions of occupation shall not in their opinion have been complied with.

7. There shall be paid to the Commissioner on every such license a fee of ten shillings, and such annual rent as may be determined by him with the authority aforesaid, not exceeding twenty shillings nor less than two shillings per acre.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington,
the fifth day of April, 1867.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Native Reserves Amendment Act, 1862," it is amongst other things provided that where under the provisions of "The Native Reserves Act, 1856," the assent of the aboriginal inhabitants is required to bringing land under the operation of the said "Native Reserves Act, 1856," the Governor may by Order in Council declare such assent to have been ascertained, and thereupon the title of the aboriginal inhabitants in the land to which the same shall relate shall be deemed to be extinguished, and the land shall from the date of such Order in Council vest in Her Majesty for the purposes and subject to the provisions of the said "Native Reserves Act, 1856," as altered by the recited Act, and that as effectually as if the same had been ceded and conveyed by such aboriginal inhabitants to Her Majesty :

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby declare that the assent of the aboriginal inhabitants to the bringing the pieces of land described in Schedules A and B hereunder written under the operation of "The Native Reserves Act, 1856," has been ascertained.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

SCHEDULE A.

All that piece of land situate in the Omata District, bounded towards the North by Barrett's Reserve D four thousand five hundred and twenty (4520) links, towards the East by the Paritutu line eight thousand two hundred and twenty (8220) links, towards the South by rural allotments Nos. forty-eight (48) and forty-eight A (48A) four thousand five hundred and twenty (4520) links, and towards the West by rural allotments Nos. forty-eight A (48A), forty-seven (47), forty-six (46), and forty-three (43), eight thousand two hundred and twenty (8220) links.

SCHEDULE B.

G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington,
the fifth day of April, 1867.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Militia Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, from time to time, to constitute throughout the Colony, or in any part thereof, Militia Districts, and such districts from time to time to abolish, and the boundaries thereof to vary; and whereas by an Order in Council, dated the twelfth day of January, 1867, the following Militia Districts in the Province of Taranaki were constituted, namely—

The Taranaki Northern District,
The Taranaki Middle District, and The Taranaki Southern District, and whereas it is expedient to alter the boundaries of the said Taranaki Southern District, for the purpose of constituting another Militia District in addition thereto in the said Province :

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony of New Zealand, and in exercise of the above recited power, doth by this present Order fix the southern boundary of the said Taranaki Southern District at the mouth of the Kaupokonui River, and from thence, by a straight line running due east to the eastern boundary of the said Province :

And doth constitute an additional Militia District in the Province of Taranaki aforesaid, to be called and doth define the said Patea District to be all the territory comprised within the following boundaries, namely:—on the North by the southern boundary of the Taranaki Southern District, as hereinbefore described; on the East by the eastern boundary of the Province of Taranaki, on the South by the southern boundary of the said Province, and on the West by the sea.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. GREY, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING :

WHEREAS by "The Militia Act, 1858,"

it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Warrant under his hand, to direct the Officer commanding the Militia of any District, with all convenient speed, to draw out for actual service such Militia force :

Now know ye, that I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby order and direct you, Lieutenant-Colonel Maxwell Lepper, the Officer commanding the Militia in the Province of Taranaki, with all convenient speed, to draw out for actual service the whole of the Militia Force within the Patea District.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at the Government House, at Wellington, this fifth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

J. RICHARDSON.
