

PROVINCE OF TARANAKI.

New Zealand Government Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

VOL. XVIII. NEW PLYMOUTH, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1870. [No. 15.]

NOTICE.

THE following letter having been received from George Cutfield, Esq., is published for general information:—

Superintendent's Office,
New Plymouth, September 10, 1870.

SIR,—As the unconstitutional step taken by the Superintendent prevents my continuing to hold the office of Deputy Superintendent, I have the honor to request that you will take the necessary steps to provide for the Provincial Service.—I have, &c.,

G. CUTFIELD,
Deputy Superintendent.

The Speaker Provincial Council,
Taranaki.

And I, therefore, do hereby proclaim and declare that I have assumed the Office of Deputy Superintendent of the Province of Taranaki, in pursuance of the powers and authority in that behalf contained in Section 5 of the "Superintendent's Deputy Act, 1866."

WM. M. CROMPTON,
Speaker Provincial Council.

New Plymouth, September 10, 1870.
