Harbour Department,
New Plymouth, January 14, 1876.

ANY person in charge of any cart or vehicle of any description, approaching within forty feet of any boat until all passengers are safely landed on the beach (unless requested by the master of the boat), will be liable to a penalty of five pounds, under the 66th Clause of the Harbour Regulations of New Zealand, which will be strictly enforced.

J. H. HOLFORD,
Harbour Master.

Clause 66.—"All watermen, stevedores, carters, or others engaged on any wharf or jetty, or at any public landing place, shall be under the control and obey the orders of the Harbour or Pier Master; and any person disobeying this regulation, or in any way obstructing the traffic on any wharf or jetty or public landing place, or making use of abusive or improper language thereon, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds."

FOOTPATH TO BE PROCLAIMED.

Superintendent's Office,
New Plymouth, January 10, 1876.

IN exercise of the authority given by an Ordinance of the Superintendent and Provincial Council of Taranaki, intituled, "The Municipal Police Ordinance, 1872," I, FREDERIC ALONZO CARRINGTON, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Taranaki, do hereby give notice and declare that the under-mentioned Footpath shall henceforth be deemed and taken to be a Public

Footpath within the meaning of an Ordinance of the Lieutenant-Governor of New Zealand, and of the Legislative Council thereof, intituled, "An Ordinance to provide for the protection of Footpaths in the Colony of New Zealand," and shall be protected accordingly.

DEVON STREET,

From Gover-street to Watson-street,
