Office, and fix a scale of fees payable to such Registrar.

NOW, KNOW ALL MEN, that I, ISAAC EARL FEATHERSTON, the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, have appointed JAMES HENRY MARRIOTT, of the city of Wellington, to be Registrar of Brands under the said Act, at his Office on Lambton Quay, in the said city; and have, with the advice of the Executive Council of the Province, made the following Rules and Regulations, to which all parties concerned are hereby required to conform, under the penalties for neglect imposed by the said Act.

2. If such Brand shall not be made of iron or other metal, then an exact copy of it, of the true size, shall be made upon foolscap paper, in like manner as impressed upon the wool of the said sheep and lambs.

3. That every such impression or copy shall be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the said J. H. Marriott, signed by the Proprietor of the said Brand, and declaring the same to be a true impression or copy.

FINAL NOTICE.

*Provincial Secretary's Office,

THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT, having completed arrangements for a line of Emigration from Great Britain to Wellington, persons desirous of availing themselves of it on behalf of relatives, friends, or laborers to be nominated in England, are requested to make early application in writing at the office of the Provincial Secretary, particularising the names, probable ages, and places of residence of the proposed Emigrants.

REGULATIONS.

1. Repayment of the passage money to be secured by Promissory Note, signed by the applicant and one other party approved by Government, payable on demand, and of which payment will be required by two instalments at twelve and twenty-four months respectively, after the arrival of the Emigrants in Wellington, except in case of applicant or surety leaving the Colony, when immediate payment will be required, or provision must be made for the same.

2. As a further security, and to protect the parties on whose application the Emigrant is brought out, Emigrant himself (or head of a family where there are women and children) will, before embarking, be required to give Promissory Notes, payable on demand, which will be forwarded to the Local Government.

3. In case of any Emigrant applied for, accepting the offer of a passage, but not presenting himself for embarkation at the time and place appointed by the Agents in England, and so being left behind, one-half of the passage money will be forfeited, and must be paid to the Provincial Government, on demand, by the applicants in the Colony; for which the first mentioned Promissory Notes will be a security.

4. In order to secure punctuality and prevent disappointment, a special Clerk will be employed by the Shipping Agents in England, who, on receipt of requisitions from the Provincial Government, will communicate with the intending Emigrants, ascertain when they will be prepared to start, give notice in duplicate of the port and day of departure, and make all the arrangements necessary to facilitate embarkation. A depôt, or other provision for temporary board and lodging, will be provided at the ports of embarkation at the expense of the Agent, in case of the ship not sailing to the day.

5. Emigrants, and their personal baggage, will be landed free of expense.

6. All ships under this arrangement will make Wellington their first port.

Further, in order to promote the instruction as well as comfort of the Passengers, arrangements will be made for the establishment of a Library for their use on board each ship during the voyage; and also a School, whenever the number of the Emigrants shall render it practicable; for which latter purpose a schoolmaster will be selected, who will be entitled to a free passage in consideration of his services.
