Diseased Cattle Regulations—Canterbury.

PROCLAMATION.

(From the Canterbury Government Gazette,
24th March, 1864.)

WHEREAS, by the "Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," it was provided that the Governor in Council might, by warrant under his hand, from time to time delegate to the Superintendent of any Province within the said Colony, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or Governor in Council by the said Act, subject to such regulations as he might think fit, and might from time to time rescind such delegation. And whereas the said Governor, hath with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, delegated to SAMUEL BEALEY, Esquire, so long as he shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, the several powers vested in the said Governor by the Second, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Ninth, and Tenth sections of the said Act, subject to being rescinded as in the said Act provided, and subject to the regulations issued by the Governor in Council on the fifteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and to any other regulations to be from time to time duly made,

Now, therefore, I, SAMUEL BEALEY, by virtue of such powers in me vested, do hereby proclaim and declare, that from and after the second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, the Province of Wellington, in the Colony of New Zealand, shall be deemed to be an infected district within the meaning of the said Act, and that no cattle shall be imported into the Province of Canterbury from the said Province.

Given under my hand, at Christchurch, this twenty-second day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

S. BEALEY,
Superintendent.

By His Honor's command,
WM. ROLLESTON,
Provincial Secretary.

General Government Notices.

A PROCLAMATION,
Abolishing Districts constituted under the "Districts Courts Acts, 1858."

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight, Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand, and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by the "Districts Courts Act, 1858," it is provided that there shall be within the Colony Courts of Record possessing Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction, to be called District Courts, and the Governor is empowered from time to time as he shall think fit by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to constitute throughout the Colony, or any part thereof, Districts within which such Courts shall be respectively held, and such Districts to abolish, and the boundaries thereof to define, or alter, and also to declare by what local name each such Court shall be designated.

And whereas under and in pursuance of the said recited Act sundry Districts have from time to time been established, and Courts held in divers places in the Colony, and whereas several of such Courts have ceased to be in operation, but doubts have existed whether such Courts have been validly discontinued. And whereas it is expedient to remove such doubts and to abolish the remainder of the Courts and Districts so constituted as aforesaid.

Now, therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony, in pursuance and execution of the power and authority in me vested under the provisions of the said recited Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that the Districts of Taranaki, Otago, Auckland, Nelson, Wellington and Wanganui, so constituted as aforesaid, are and from henceforth shall be abolished, and that the Districts of Hawke's Bay, the Hutt and Marlborough, shall be and remain abolished from and after the Twenty-eighth day of March next ensuing.

Given under my hand, at the Government House, at Auckland, and issued under the Seal of the Colony, this twenty-seventh day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

G. GREY,
Governor.

By His Excellency's command,
WILLIAM FOX.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

New Zealand Gazette, 3rd March, 1864.

A PROCLAMATION,

Extending the Jurisdiction of the Resident Magistrate's Court at Napier, the Lower Hutt and Blenheim.

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight, Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by the "Resident Magistrates' Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1862," it is enacted that every case of a claim for debt or damages, such as might at the passing of the said Act be lawfully tried in the Resident Magistrate's Court, where the debt or damages claimed do not exceed twenty pounds, may be tried in any Resident Magistrate's Court, with respect to which this Act shall be in operation when the debt or damages claimed do not exceed fifty pounds.

Now, therefore, I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the said recited Act, and of an Order in Council dated the seventeenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, authorising the issue of Proclamations under the said Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that the provisions of the said recited Act, and especially the powers conferred by sections two and three thereof, shall be exercised to the limit of jurisdiction of Fifty pounds in the Resident Magistrate's Court at Napier, in the Province of Hawke's Bay, at the Lower Hutt, in the Province of Wellington, and at Blenheim, in the Province of Marlborough.

And I do further Proclaim and declare that this Proclamation shall take effect on and from the twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

Given under my hand, at Government House, at Auckland, and issued under the Seal of the Colony, this twenty-seventh day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

G. GREY,
Governor.

By His Excellency's command,
WILLIAM FOX.
