MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1868.

No. 28

Native Lands Court.

Native Lands Court Office,
Auckland, July 28, 1868.

WHEREAS by virtue of an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand intituled "The Natives Lands Act 1867," the Governor may at his discretion refer to the Native Lands Court the claim of any person to, or any question affecting the title to or interest of any such person in land within the boundaries described in the second Schedule to the said Act, being the boundaries described in a certain deed of sale to the Crown, bearing date the thirteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and expressed to be a conveyance by Natives entitled to land within the district excepted from the operation of "The Native Lands Act 1865," by section eighty-two thereof provided that no claim by and no question relating to the title or interest of any Native who shall have signed the said deed of sale shall so be referred.

And whereas, the Governor by a warrant under his hand dated the 17th day of July, instant, did refer to the Native Lands Court certain claims which are named in the Schedule hereunto attached being claims for lands within the boundaries aforesaid of Natives who have not signed the said deed of sale.

Now, notice is hereby given that at the sitting of this Court to be held at Wellington, on the 15th day of September next, and following days, will be heard and determined the matters referred as aforesaid.

A. J. DICKEY,
Chief Clerk.
