VOL. XVIII.

TUESDAY, JUNE 27, 1871.

No. 16.

DELEGATED POWERS.

(From the New Zealand Gazette, June 1, 1871.)

The Lunatic's Act, 1868.

WHEREAS by "The Lunatics Act, 1868," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, from time to time, to order and direct that all or any of the powers, functions, duties, and authorities vested in or required to be performed by the Governor, or the Governor in Council, or the Colonial Secretary, by the said Act, within any Province or other district of the Colony, shall be exercised or performed by the Superintendent of any such Province, or by any other person the Governor may think fit; and thereupon such functions, powers, duties, and authorities may by such Superintendent or other person be exercised or performed within the Province or other district of the Colony specified:

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Colony, in pursuance and in exercise of the power and authority for that purpose vested in him, doth hereby order and direct that all the powers, functions, duties, and authorities vested in or required to be performed by the Governor, or the Governor in Council, or the Colonial Secretary, by "The Lunatics Act, 1868," within the Province of Wellington, shall be exercised by the Superintendent of such Province.

WILLIAM FOX,
Presiding.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Diseased Cattle Act.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intitled "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865" (section 4), the Governor may, by any Order in Council, from time to time annul, make void, or alter or vary and make anew, any orders in Council, regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations made and published by the Governor under the authority of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," or of this Act, or by the Superintendent of any Province under or in pursuance of any power delegated to him under any of the powers of delegation contained in the said Act: And whereas by section five of the said Amendment Act, as to regulations, appointments, and prohibitory and other declarations made by Superintendents of Provinces in pursuance of any powers delegated under the powers of delegation contained in the said Act or this Act, the power of annulling, making void, or allowing or varying and making anew, any such regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations vested in the Governor by this Act, may from time to time be delegated by the Governor in Council, by Warrant under his hand, to the Superintendent of any Province:

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, G.C.M.G., in exercise of the power and authority so vested in him as Governor as aforesaid, doth by this Order in Council delegate to

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT, Esq.,
Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, so long and so long only as he shall continue to be such Superintendent, all the powers which, by the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act, the Governor in Council is authorized so to delegate.

WILLIAM FOX,
Presiding.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Gold Fields Act Amendment Act, 1868.

WHEREAS by "The Gold Fields Act Amendment Act, 1868," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, if and whenever he shall have, by lease, agreement, or otherwise, by consent of the Native owners of any land over which the Native title has been extinguished, or the Native owners of any land over which the Native title has not been extinguished, obtain power from such Native or other owners to authorize entry on such lands for mining for gold, by Proclamation issued under the third section of "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," to include such land within any Gold Field, or to proclaim such land a Gold Field: And by the said Act it is further enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, under his hand and the Public Seal of the Colony, from time to time to delegate to the Superintendent of any Province, or to such other person as the Governor may deem fit, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor by the preceding sections of the said Act (including the above-recited sections) subject or not to any limitations or restrictions as the Governor may think fit:

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power for that purpose vested in him by the said Act, doth hereby delegate to

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT, Esq.,
Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, all the powers vested in the Governor by the said recited section of "The Gold Fields Act Amendment Act, 1868," to have, hold, and exercise, within the Province of Wellington, the said powers hereby delegated to the said William Fitzherbert, so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, and no longer: Provided always that no Proclamation affecting any lands shall be made by the said

William Fitzherbert, under the powers hereby delegated to him, unless the Governor shall have obtained power to authorise entry on such lands for mining for gold, in the manner required by the said Act.

WILLIAM FOX,
Presiding.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council

Protection of Animals Act.

WHEREAS by "The Protection of Animals Act, 1867," it is enacted that the Governor may, by Order of Council published in the New Zealand Gazette, delegate to the Superintendent of any Province all or any of the powers by the said Act vested in the Governor or the Governor in Council, subject to such regulations as he may think fit, and may from time to time rescind such delegation:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby delegate unto

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT, Esq.,
Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, all the powers vested by the said Act in the Governor or the Governor in Council, to be exercised only in respect of the said Province.

WILLIAM FOX,
Presiding.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Gold Fields Act, 1866.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intitled "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, under his hand and the Public Seal of the Colony, from time to time to delegate to the Superintendent of any Province, or such other person as the Governor may deem fit, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or the Governor in Council by the Act now in recital, except the powers conferred by sections twenty-two, forty, forty-eight, sixty, ninety-six, and one hundred and seven of the said Act, subject or not to any limitations or restrictions as he may think fit, and in like manner to alter or revoke any such powers:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, and in exercise of the power and authority for this purpose in me vested, do hereby delegate unto

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT, Esq.,
as Superintendent of the Province of

Wellington, all the powers vested in me under or by virtue of the said "Gold Fields Act, 1866," except the powers conferred by sections twenty-two, forty, forty-eight, sixty, ninety-six, and one hundred and seven, to have hold, and exercise, within the Province of Wellington, the said powers hereby given to the said William Fitzherbert, so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, and no longer: Provided always that copies of all Rules and Regulations made under the delegation aforesaid shall be forthwith transmitted to the Colonial Secretary, in order that the same may be laid before the General Assembly, in accordance with the provisions of the one hundred and tenth clause of "The Gold Fields Act, 1866."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the most distinguished order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Public Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this eleventh day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

WILLIAM FOX,
Presiding.

Approved in Council.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

The Prisoners Removal Act, 1858

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 29th May, 1871.

IT is hereby notified, that the Governor has delegated to their Honors the Superintendents of the Provinces of Wellington and Hawke's Bay, within those Provinces, His Excellency's powers under "The Prisoners Removal Act, 1865."

W. GISBORNE.

The Waste Lands Act, 1858.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 29th May, 1871.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to delegate, under "The Waste Lands Act, 1858," to the Superintendents of the Provinces of Wellington and Hawke's Bay, the powers vested in the Governor by section 14 of the said Act, subject to be rescinded as in the said Act provided.

W. GISBORNE.

Regulations for the introduction of Immigrants into the Province of Wellington on the nomination of persons resident therein.

WHEREAS by "The Immigration and Public Works Act, 1870," it is among other things enacted that the Governor may, at the request of the Superintendent of any Province from time to time, make regulations (as therein mentioned) for the conduct of immigration under the said Act into such Province, and for the nomination of Immigrants by persons resident therein, and for the distribution of funds provided by the said Act for immigration purposes, and for the introduction into and settlement in such Province of Immigrants, and for selling as special settlements for any such Immigrants any lands which he may acquire from any Province under the provisions therein contained, or any lands acquired under "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," or the Acts amending the same, and for laying out and allotting any lands so acquired amongst any such Immigrants: And whereas William Fitzherbert, Esq., the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, hath requested me, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, to make regulations under the provisions of the said Act as and in manner hereinafter set forth:

Now therefore I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, by virtue and in exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by the forty-first section of "The Immigration and Public Works Act, 1870," and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in that behalf, and in compliance with the request of the said Superintendent, do hereby make the following regulations, that is to say:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE INTRODUCTION OF IMMIGRANTS INTO THE PROVINCE OF WELLINGTON, ON THE NOMINATION OF PERSONS RESIDENT THEREIN.

1. Each applicant will be required to pay the sum of £5 for each adult at the time of making the application, and £2 10s for each child between the ages of one and twelve years. Infants in arms, under one year, free. This rate being from London to Wellington only: the cost of reaching London and proceeding up the country after arrival in Wellington will have to be defrayed by the emigrants themselves.

2. As a rule, no unmarried females can be provided with passages under these regulations, excepting they accompany and are under the care of some specified relative or friend. Passages for unmarried females not so accompanied can only be granted subject to the Agent-General in England being able to make suitable provision for oversight during the voyage.

3. In the event of any emigrants applied for declining to emigrate, whatever money may have been deposited with the Government will be returned so soon as the Agent-General in England shall have apprised the Government thereof; but in the event of any emigrants applied for accepting the offer of a passage in a particular ship, and so, by failing to present themselves for embarkation at the time and place appointed by the Agent-General in England for the sailing of such ship, be left behind, the passage money and passages will be forfeited.

4. All the ships employed in this service will be under the provisions of "The Passenger Act."

5. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Agent-General in England will have power to refuse passages where the intending emigrants are in ill health or in any way unfitted, according to his judgment, to undertake the voyage.

6. Applications for passages are to be addressed to the Provincial Secretary, Wellington, in the following form, viz.:-

I, the undersigned, hereby apply for the passage to Wellington, under the regulations of 30th May, 1871, of

Name
Age
Calling
Address in full.....

for which I herewith pay the sum of being equal to adults at £5 per adult, and hereby agree to receive the emigrants above-named immediately on their arrival in Wellington.

Dated this day of , 1871.

(Signature and Address of Applicant.)

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued at Wellington, this thirtieth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

40. Allowing any privy or cesspit to be within three yards clear of any adjoining premises without the consent of the Council.

41. Allowing any privy to be used unprovided with suitable apparatus for removing the soil, or allowing any cesspit to be formed or used not constructed or maintained to the satisfaction of the Council.

42. Allowing the contents of any privy or cesspit to soak therefrom, so as to be offensive, or allowing any privy to remain in full view from any public street or thoroughfare.

43. Refusing any Health Officer, Sanitary Inspector, Inspector of Nuisances, or other officer duly appointed by the Council permission within reasonable hours to inspect any premises.

44. Neglecting to abate any nuisance whatever within twenty-four hours after receiving written notice so to do, from any Health Officer, Sanitary Inspector, Inspector of Nuisances, or other officer duly appointed by the City Council, unless in such written notice longer time be allowed.

WITH RESPECT TO OFFENSIVE TRADES.

45. Any person carrying on the business of a blood boiler, bone boiler, fellmonger, slaughterer of cattle, horses, or animals of any description, soap boiler, tallow melter, tripe boiler, or any other noxious or offensive business, trade, or manufacture, within the City of Wellington, unless licensed or permitted by the City Council so to do.

46. Discharging any firearms, or letting off any fireworks, without permission of the City Council.

47. Throwing or discharging any stone or other missile in any public place or thoroughfare.

WITH RESPECT TO HAWKING, &c.

48. Any person hawking, selling, or offering for sale in any street or public place in the City of Wellington, without first having paid to the Inspector appointed by the City Council the undermentioned dues, during which period such articles may be hawked, exposed, or offered for sale, or other dues as may be from time to time fixed and appointed by the said Council:—1st. Dues for any person selling, hawking, or offering for sale any articles, in any street or public place in the City of Wellington, with cart, per month 10s., quarter 20s. 2nd. And the onus of proof that any articles being delivered about the streets of the city have previously been ordered, and not being hawked, shall in such case rest with the vendor or party delivering the goods.

MISCELLANEOUS.

49. Any person being the owner or tenant of any building abutting on any street, where the footpath has been formed, who, by omitting or neglecting to secure and maintain the foundation of such building, causes the formed footpath to fall in or be otherwise damaged.

50. Any person laying out or opening any street or building thereon, and omitting during the operations necessary for the formation of such street or for building thereon to take all such precautions for guarding against injury to the passengers along such street as may be necessary, or as may be directed by the City Council.

51. Any person destroying, damaging, polluting, or obstructing any aqueduct, dam, sluiceway, pump, water course or fountain.

52. Any person stabling any horse, cow, or other animal in any stable or shed or forming or using any dung-heap or dung-pit, unless such stable or dung-pit be erected, maintained and drained to the satisfaction of the City Council.

53. In the event of any fire occurring within the limits of the City of Wellington, it shall be lawful for the Captain or other Officer of any local fire brigade to take the horse or horses from any cart, waggon, dray or other vehicle for the purpose of harnessing such horse or horses to any fire engine, and driving such engine to the locality of the fire, it being understood that the Fire Brigade so using the horse or horses shall, on demand, pay the owner such reasonable compensation as may be ordered (in the event of dispute) by any two Justices of the Peace, and any person driving any cart, waggon, dray, or other vehicle, who shall refuse the use of the horse or horses so required, or any person obstructing or preventing any Captain or other Officer of any local Fire Brigade from so using the horse or horses.

54. Any person who shall allow any furze to grow wild after receiving notice from the City Council to remove the same, or who shall continue to keep or maintain any furze fence without permission from the City Council so to do.

The foregoing Bye-Laws were PASSED by the City Council of Wellington at a Meeting on this 19th day of May, 1871.
