MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1871.

No. 24.

Wellington Patent Slip.

[New Zealand Gazette, No. 48, 28th August, 1871. Page 466.]

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by the thirty-third section of the "Marine Act, 1867," it is enacted that it shall not be lawful for any person to commence or undertake the construction of any new or additional wharf, quay, dock, pier, or other harbor work in any port, until he shall have laid before the Governor, or Superintendent of the Province within which such port is situate, detailed plans and specifications of such proposed work, nor until the same shall have been approved of by the Governor or Superintendent, and notice in writing of such approval shall have been given to such person accordingly, as in the said Act provided:

And whereas the Wellington Patent Slip Company (Limited), being desirous of constructing a Patent Slip at a certain part of Evans Bay, in the harbour of Port Nicholson, in the Province of Wellington, has laid before me certain detailed plans and specifications of the proposed work, which detailed plans, marked A and B respectively, and specifications, are deposited in the Office of the Colonial Secretary, and are authenticated by my signature thereon:

And whereas I have thought it fit to approve of the said proposed work, and of the detailed plans and specifications:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in exercise and pursuance of the power and authority conferred on me by the said Act, do hereby signify my approval of the said proposed work, and of the said detailed plans and specifications thereof, and do order that notice in writing of such approval be given to the said Company by the Colonial Secretary.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington, this seventeenth day of August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.
