Proclamation.

By His Honor William Fitzherbert, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, in the Colony of New Zealand.

WHEREAS by proclamation dated the 4th day of June, 1872, duly issued by me the said Superintendent in pursuance of the provisions of "The Bridges and Ferries Act, 1868," and "The Bridges and Ferries Act, 1868 Amendment Act, 1869," it was proclaimed that the several amounts of tolls set forth in the schedule to the said proclamation should be the amount of tolls to be levied under the provisions of the said Act.

And whereas it is thought advisable to alter and amend the said schedule as hereinafter mentioned:

Now therefore I, the said William Fitzherbert, by virtue of the powers delegated to me, do hereby proclaim and appoint that the aforesaid schedule shall be amended as follows, that is to say, that the tolls for Ferries in the Province of Wellington shall be as regards the two following items:—

Saddle horse and rider ... 1s.

For every foot passenger 6d.

The other tolls in the said schedule mentioned, not to be affected by this proclamation.

Given under my hand and issued under the public seal of the Province of Wellington, at Wellington, this twenty-sixth day of February, 1873.

HENRY BUNNY,
Provincial Secretary.

Delegation of the Governor's Powers under "The Public Health Act, 1872," to the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Public Health Act, 1872," it is among other things, enacted that the Governor may from time to time, as he thinks fit, order that all or any of the powers, functions, duties, authorities, or acts vested in, conferred on, or authorised or required to be performed by the Governor within any Province, district, port, or place in the Colony, by or under the fifty-third and seventy-seventh sections of the said Act, shall be exercised, performed, or done by the Superintendent of such Province with the advice of the Executive Council of such Province (if any), as in the said Act mentioned; subject, however, to any limitations or restrictions as he may think fit: And whereas by the said Act it is also enacted that the term "Superintendent" shall include the Chairman of the County Council of the County of Westland:

Now, therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and in exercise of the power and authority enabled him under the hereinbefore in part recited Act, doth hereby order that all the powers, functions, duties, authorities, or acts vested in, conferred on, or authorized or required to be done by him as such Governor as aforesaid, within the Province of Wellington, under the fifty-third and seventy-seventh sections of the said Act, shall be exercised, performed, or done by

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT, Esq.,

Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, as and in manner by the said Act required: Provided that this order shall only remain in force so long as the said William Fitzherbert shall be and remain such Superintendent as aforesaid, or until other provision in that behalf shall be made by the Governor under the powers aforesaid.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued at Wellington, this twelfth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

G. M. WATERHOUSE.

Approved in Council.

FOSTER GOBING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Delegation of the Governor's powers under "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," to the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intitled "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, under his hand and the Public Seal of the Colony, from time to time to delegate to the Superintendent of any Province, or such other person as the Governor may deem fit, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or the Governor in Council by the Act now in recital, except the powers conferred by sections twenty-two, forty, forty-eight, sixty, ninety-six, and one hundred and seven of the said Act, subject or not to any limitations or restrictions as he may think fit and in like manner to alter or revoke any such power:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, and in exercise of the power and authority for this purpose in me vested, do hereby delegate unto

as Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, all the powers vested in me under or by virtue of the said "Gold Fields Act, 1866," except the powers conferred by sections twenty-two, forty, forty-eight, sixty, ninety-six, and one hundred and seven, to have, hold, and exercise, within the Province of Wellington, the said powers hereby given to the said William Fitzherbert, so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, and no longer: Provided always that copies of all rules and regulations made under the delegation aforesaid shall be forthwith transmitted to the Colonial Secretary, in order that the same may be laid before the General Assembly, in accordance with the provisions of the one hundred and tenth clause of "The Gold Fields Act, 1866."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Public Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this twelfth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

G. M. WATERHOUSE.

Approved in Council.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Delegation of the Governor's Powers under "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," to the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At Wellington, this twelfth day of February, 1873.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Gold Fields Act Amendment Act, 1868," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, if and whenever he shall have, by lease, agreement, or otherwise by consent of the Native owners of any land over which the Native title has been extinguished, or the Native owners of any land over which the Native title has not been extinguished, obtained power from such Native or other owners to authorize entry on such lands for mining for gold, by Proclamation issued under the third section of "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," to include such land within any gold field, or to proclaim such land a gold field: And by the said Act it is further enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, under his hand and the Public Seal of the Colony, from time to time to delegate to the Superintendent of any Province, or to such other person as the Governor may deem fit, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor by the preceding sections of the said Act (including the above-recited sections)-subject or not to any limitations or restrictions as the Governor may think fit:

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power for that purpose vested in him by the said Act, doth hereby delegate to

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT, Esq.,
Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, all the powers vested in the Governor by the said recited section of "The Gold Fields Act Amendment Act, 1868," to have, hold, and exercise, within the Province of Wellington, the said powers hereby delegated to the said William Fitzherbert, so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, and no longer: Provided always that no Proclamation affecting any lands shall be made by the said William Fitzherbert, under the powers hereby delegated to him, unless the Governor shall have obtained power to authorize entry on such lands for mining for gold, in the manner required by the said Act.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Delegation of the Governor's Powers under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1865," to the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At Wellington, this twelfth day of February, 1873.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," (section 4,) the Governor may, by any Order in Council, from time to time annul, make void, or alter or vary and make anew, any Orders in Council, regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations made and published by the Governor under the authority of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," or of this Act, or by the Superintendent of any Province under or in pursuance of any power delegated to him under any of the powers of delegation contained in the said

Act: And whereas by section five of the said Amendment Act, as to regulations, appointments, and prohibitory and other declarations made by Superintendents of Provinces in pursuance of any powers delegated under the powers of delegation contained in the said Act or this Act, the power of annulling, making void, or allowing or varying and making anew, any such regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations vested in the Governor by this Act, may from time to time be delegated by the Governor in Council by Warrant under his hand, to the Superintendent of any Province:

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, G.C.M.G., in exercise of the power and authority so vested in him as Governor as aforesaid, doth by this Order in Council delegate to

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT, Esq.,

Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, so long and so long only as he shall continue to be such Superintendent, all the powers which, by the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act, the Governor in Council is authorized so to delegate.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Delegation of the Governor's Powers under "The Lunatics Act, 1868," to the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At Wellington, this twelfth day of February, 1873.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Lunatics Act, 1868," is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, from time to time, to order and direct that all or any of the powers, functions, duties, and authorities vested in or required to be performed by the Governor or the Governor in Council, or the Colonial Secretary, by the said Act, within any Province or other district of the Colony, shall be exercised or performed by the Superintendent of any such Province, or by any other person the Governor may think fit; and thereupon such functions, powers, duties and authorities may by such Superintendent or other person be exercised or performed within the Province or other district of the Colony specified:

Now, therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Colony, in pursuance and in exercise of the power and authority for that purpose vested in him, doth hereby order and direct that all the powers, functions, duties and authorities vested in or required to be performed by the Governor or the Governor in Council, or the Colonial Secretary, by "The Lunatic Act, 1868," within the Province of Wellington shall be exercised by the Superintendent of such Province.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Delegation of the Governor's Powers under "The Protection of Animals Act, 1867," to the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At Wellington, this twelfth day of February, 1873.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Protection of Animals Act, 1867," it is enacted that the Governor may, by Order in Council publish in the New Zealand Gazette, delegate to the Superintendent of any Province all or any of the powers by the said Act vested in the Governor or the Governor in Council, subject to such regulations as he may think fit, and may from time to time rescind such delegation:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby delegate to

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT, Esq.,

Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, so long as he shall continue and remain Superintendent of the said Province, all the powers vested by the said Act in the Governor or the Governor in Council, to be exercised only in respect of the said Province.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Governor's Powers under "The Prisoners Removal Act, 1865," delegated to Superintendent, Wellington.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

IT is hereby notified that the Governor has delegated to His Honor the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington His Excellency's powers under "The Prisoners Removal Act, 1865."

G. M. WATERHOUSE.

Governor's Powers under "The Waste Lands Act, 1858," delegated to Superintendent, Wellington.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 12th February, 1873.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to delegate, under "The Waste Lands Act, 1858," to His Honor the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, the powers vested in the Governor by section 14 of the said Act, subject to be rescinded as in the said Act provided.

G. M. WATERHOUSE.

"Diseased Stock Act, 1872," (Victoria), and Regulations thereunder.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 1st February, 1873.

THE following copy of an Act, and of certain Regulations published thereunder, for the Prevention of Diseases in Stock, which have been received from the Government of Victoria, are published for general information, and the attention of stockowners and others interested in the exportation of stock to the Colony of Victoria is particularly directed to the subject.

JOHN HALL.

AN ACT for the Prevention of Diseases in Stock.

[17th December, 1872.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Victoria, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows (that is to say):—

1. This Act shall be called and may be cited as "The Diseases in Stock Act, 1872."

2. Part III. of "The Prevention of Diseases of Animals Statute, 1864," and "The Prevention of Diseases of Animals Statute, 1872," No. 418, are hereby repealed.

3. In the construction of this Act, the following words shall, if not inconsistent with the context or subject matter, have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them (that is to say):—

"Inspector of Stock" shall include the Chief Inspector of Stock.

"Stock" shall include any bull, cow, ox, calf, stallion, mare, gelding, foal, ass, mule, ram, ewe, wether, lamb, pig, goat, dog, or other animal whatsoever.

"Drive" shall mean drive, conduct, or convey, whether by land or by water.

"Disease" shall mean any contagious or infectious disease to which any animal is subject, which the Governor in Council may, from time to time, by order, declare to be a contagious or infectious disease for the purposes of this Act.

"Diseased Stock" shall mean all stock proclaimed by the Governor in Council to be diseased.

"Fittings" shall mean any sheep pens, cattle or horse boxes, and any materials used for penning, yarding, or confining stock; as also any halters, brushes, clothes, buckets, or other articles whatever, which shall have been brought in contact with any diseased stock.

"Place" shall mean and include any defined division or portion of the Colony.

"Fodder" shall mean any food or bedding used or which shall have been brought in contact with any imported stock.

4. The Governor in Council may from time to time make such regulations under this Act as may be deemed expedient for all or any of the following purposes, and may rescind the same:—

For extending all or any of the sections of this Act to any particular stock, or kind of stock.

For prohibiting the introduction into the Colony, either by sea or land, of any stock found to be diseased.

For regulating and fixing the conditions upon which certain kind of stock may be introduced into the Colony.

For the inspection of newly-introduced stock.

For taking such steps as may be deemed expedient to prevent the spread of any disease which may have obtained a footing in the Colony, and to eradicate it.

For placing any stock in quarantine for such periods, at such places or buildings, and within such limits, as may be deemed expedient, and for declaring any such place or building a quarantine district.

For the purpose of subjecting any stock to such restrictions or remedial measures as may be deemed necessary to prevent the introduction and spread of disease.

For the seizure and destruction of any diseased stock.

For the purpose of proclaiming any portion of the Colony a quarantine or a clean district.

For prohibiting or regulating the introduction into the Colony of any fodder or fittings, and for the seizure, sale, or destruction of any such fodder or fittings landed without the written authority of an Inspector of Stock.

5. The Governor in Council may from time to time appoint and remove a Chief Inspector of Stock, Inspectors of Stock, and such other officers as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

6. Inspectors of Stock shall have power to enter at any time into any ship, or on any land, or into any building not being a dwelling-house, for the purpose of inspecting any stock or enforcing the provisions of this Act, or the regulations made in pursuance hereof. Any person who shall obstruct or hinder any Inspector in the performance of his duty shall, on conviction before two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for every such offence.

7. Stock newly introduced either by sea or land shall not travel until it has been inspected by an Inspector appointed for that purpose, the cost of such inspection and of carrying out the several provisions of this Act shall be defrayed by a charge to be imposed of one shilling per head for every head of cattle and horses, sixpence per head for every head of calves and foals, and one penny per head for every head of sheep and pigs so inspected; and such charge may be recovered in a summary way before any two Justices.

8. Any person who shall allow to stray or shall drive or cause to be driven any newly introduced stock which has not been inspected, or any stock of the kind for the time being subject to contagious or infectious disease, into a quarantine or clean district without the written authority of an Inspector of Stock, shall on conviction before two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds for every such offence.

9. Any person who shall introduce into the Colony any fodder or fittings without the written authority of an Inspector of Stock shall, on conviction before two Justices of the Peace, forfeit such fodder and fittings, and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for every such offence.

10. Whenever the Governor in Council shall be satisfied, upon the report of an Inspector of Stock and otherwise, that any stock is diseased, he may order the destruction of the same, and the owner thereof shall have no claim for compensation for their destruction.

11. Whenever the Governor in Council shall have ordered that any stock shall be placed in quarantine or under restrictions for the purposes of this Act, or that remedial measures shall be taken to prevent the introduction or spread of disease, the cost and expense thereby incurred shall in every case be borne by the owner of the stock dealt with, if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council that such stock are or have been diseased, and such cost and expense may be recovered in a summary manner before any two Justices of the Peace on complaint by an Inspector of Stock.

12. Any person who shall drive or cause to be driven into through or out of any quarantine district, or shall remove from any quarantine district any fodder or fittings, or any soil sand or other material upon which any diseased stock have been kept, or any dairy produce of diseased stock, without the written authority of an Inspector of Stock, shall, upon conviction before two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for every such offence.

13. Any person who shall be guilty of a breach of any of the regulations made under this Act by the Governor in Council, shall on conviction of the same before two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds for every such offence.

14. Any regulation made or to be made under this Act shall have the full force of law until the same shall have been disallowed by resolution of both Houses of Parliament, and thereupon such regulation or any part thereof so disallowed shall cease to have any force or effect in law: Provided also and be it enacted that this Act shall continue in force until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and until the end of the then next ensuing session of Parliament.

REGULATIONS.

WHEREAS by "The Diseases in Stock Act 1872," it is amongst other things enacted that the Governor in Council may from time to time make such regulations as may be deemed expedient for all or any of the purposes mentioned in the 4th section of the said Act: Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, doth by this present Order, in exercise of the power conferred by the above recited Act, and every other power enabling him in that behalf, make the regulations following, that is to say:—

1. The diseases mentioned in the First Schedule hereto are hereby declared to be contagious or infectious diseases, and all stock affected with such diseases are hereby declared to be diseased stock for the purposes of "The Diseases in Stock Act, 1872."

2. All the sections of the said Act shall extend to all stock of the kinds mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto.

3. The introduction of any stock mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto into the Colony, either by sea or land, known to be suffering from any of the diseases mentioned in the First Schedule hereto, is prohibited.

Introduction of Stock from the Australasian Colonies and New Zealand.

4. No one shall introduce into the Colony, either by sea or land, any stock of any kind mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto, coming from any of the Australasian Colonies or New Zealand, without the authority in writing of an Inspector of Stock, and except in accordance with the conditions of such authority.

5. Such authority may be granted to introduce such stock at any of the places mentioned in the Fourth Schedule hereto, but shall not, unless under special circumstances, be granted to introduce stock at any other place.

6. No Inspector shall authorise any of the said stock to be introduced or to travel until he has inspected such stock, and is satisfied that it is free from any of the diseases mentioned in the First Schedule hereto, and has received a statutory declaration, made by the owner or person in charge stating the number and description of stock which he is desirous to import, and that the same have been free from disease and from contact with any diseased stock for the space of not less than thirty days, and has counted the same or been otherwise satisfied in regard to the number of stock to be so imported, and received the charge imposed by the 7th section of the said Act in respect thereof, for which charge a receipt shall be given in the form of the Third Schedule hereto.

7. In the case of the introduction of saddle horses, draught horses, pack horses, and working bullocks, used bona fide for the purpose of riding, draught, or carrying burdens, having been once inspected and paid the charges specified in the said section, special authority may be granted by an Inspector, and continue in force until revoked by a notice from such Inspector, to enable such horses or bullocks to pass and repass, without further inspection or payment of the said charges, between any portions of either of the adjoining colonies and this Colony.

Introduction into the Colony of Stock from places other than the Australasian Colonies and New Zealand.

8. No stock of any kind mentioned in the Second Schedule brought by sea to the Colony from any place other than one of the Australasian colonies or New Zealand, shall be introduced at any other place than Sandridge, or without the authority, in writing, of an Inspector of Stock, and except in accordance with the conditions of such authority.

9. Before authorizing the introduction of any such stock, the Inspector shall be furnished with a certificate, in the form or to the effect of the Fifth Schedule hereto, from some veterinary surgeon in whom he has confidence, that such stock are, in his opinion, free from any of the said diseases, and a statutory declaration from the master of the vessel in which such stock have been brought to this Colony, that they have not suffered from any such disease during the voyage, and be satisfied that the said stock are free from any of the said diseases.

10. No Inspector shall authorize the removal from any quarantine ground, of any stock ordered to have been placed in quarantine, until they have been twice disinfected to his satisfaction, and have been detained until he is satisfied that they appear to be free from any of the said diseases.

11. No Inspector shall authorize the introduction into the Colony of any fittings until they have been properly disinfected to the satisfaction of the Inspector, nor of any fodder, other than oilcake, bran, barley, beans, or pease, except for the purpose of burning such other fodder on the beach.

12. No fodder or fittings shall be thrown overboard from any ship in any port of the Colony.

13. The places or buildings at which stock may be kept in quarantine may be from time to time determined and varied by the Governor in Council, and on the publication in the Government Gazette of an Order of the Governor in Council declaring any place or building a place at which stock may be kept in quarantine, and defining the boundaries of such place or building, such place or building, together with any adjoining land, the boundaries whereof are defined by such Order and declared to form part of the district hereinafter mentioned, shall become, and until the variation or revocation of such order, continue, a quarantine district.

In the Supreme Court of New Zealand.

WELLINGTON DISTRICT.

Under "The Execution of Judgments against Real Estates Act, 1867."

In re Thomas Whyte Young, Plaintiff, And
George Timothy Bell, Defendant.

Amount recovered, £35 15s.

I HEREBY give notice that by virtue of a Writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the Supreme Court of New Zealand, to me directed and delivered, I have caused my bailiff to enter upon part of section 150 on the plan of the city of Wellington, and being allotment 11 on the plan of the said section; bounded on the South by allotment 19, part of same section, thirty feet; on the North by Ghuznee Street, thirty feet; on the East by allotment 10, part of said section, ninety feet; and on the West by allotment 12, part of said section; being the equity of redemption (subject to two mortgages) of the above-named George Timothy Bell (such land having been taken in execution at the suit of the execution creditor), and that it is my intention to sell or cause the said property, with all buildings and appurtenances thereon, to be sold by public auction, at Thomas' Auction Mart, Wellington aforesaid, on Tuesday, the thirteenth day of May, 1873, at twelve o'clock noon, unless satisfaction be sooner made of the said amount of judgment, and all further costs and expenses incidental thereto.

And I further give notice that James Gordon Allan, Esquire, of the city of Wellington, is solicitor for the plaintiff.

JAMES C. CRAWFORD,
Sheriff.

Wellington, 1st February, 1873.
