HENRY BUNNY,
 Provincial Secretary.

*Masterton Local Board.*BYE-LAWS.

AT MEETINGS of the Local Board held on the 28th September, and 6th October last, the following Bye-laws were adopted at Masterton :—

I. The Board may make such provision as it shall think fit for the periodical removal from every dwellinghouse or other tenement, as aforesaid, within the district, at the expense of the owner, or occupier thereof, of any nightsoil, dung, ashes, slops, filth, refuse, or rubbish of any kind.

II. Any person guilty of the following offences, omissions, or neglects, within the district shall, on being convicted of any such offence, neglect, or omission, be liable to pay any penalty not exceeding (£5) five pounds.

1. Throwing or sweeping any glass, filth, dirt, rubbish, orange-peel, or other matter of a similar nature, upon or into any street, channel, footway, court, alley, or public place whatsoever.
2. Leading or riding any horse, or other animal, or drawing, wheeling, or driving any cart, carriage, sledge, truck, barrow, or other thing upon or along any footpath, unless permitted by the Board to do so.
3. Burning any shavings, straw, or other material upon any footpath, channel, surface drain, or carriage road, without such permission as aforesaid.
4. Drawing or trailing any timber or other material upon any footpath or carriage road.
5. Allowing nightsoil or other offensive matter to be spilt, or otherwise cast on or upon any road, street, footway, public place, or thoroughfare.
6. Leaving any inflammable materials or matter in any public street or place, or on any open space near any building, without such permission as aforesaid.
7. Opening any drain or sewer, or removing the surface of any footway or carriage road, without authority to do so.
8. Neglecting to clean any private yard, way, passage, avenue, watercloset, privy, or drain, or chimney, when ordered to do so, by which neglect a nuisance by offensive smell or otherwise is caused.
9. Furiously or negligently riding or driving through any public street, place, or thoroughfare.
10. Making any cellar, door, or other opening, from the footpath of any street or public thoroughfare, without the consent, or not in accordance with the directions of the Commissioners.
11. Any person placing any obstruction upon any street line, whereby life or limb is likely to be endangered.
12. Any person driving any vehicle whatsoever, or riding any animal, and when meeting any other vehicle or animal, not keeping on the left or near side of the street, or when passing any other vehicle or animal going in the same direction, not going or passing, or not allowing any person desirous so to do to pass, when practicable, on the right or off side of such other vehicle or animal.
13. Any driver of any horse or vehicle, injuring any person or property whatsoever by negligence, or by driving on the wrong side of the road, or by being away from his horse or cattle, so as to be unable to have the full control over them.
14. Any person turning loose any horse or cattle upon any public street, or allowing any animal or animals to wander on any public street or thoroughfares within the district.
15. Any person leaving upon any public street or thoroughfare any plough, barrow, cart, or other vehicle, without any horse harnessed thereto, unless in consequence of some accident having occurred.
16. Any person having any iron, timber, or boards laid across any vehicle going along any street or thoroughfare, so that either end should project more than two feet beyond the wheels or sides of such vehicle.
17. Any person destroying, damaging, polluting, or obstructing any aqueduct, dam, sluice, pipe, pump, watercourse, or fountain.
18. Any person suffering or allowing any waste or impure water, or other matter, to remain in any cellar or place, within any building or premises in the district, or allowing any waste or impure water, or other matter, to run or flow from any such building or premises, upon or over, or be on any carriage road or footway, or other place, whether public or private, within the district, or shall allow the contents of any watercloset, privy, or cesspool, to overflow or soak therefrom, so as to be offensive.

19. Keeping any disreputable house or house of ill-fame, or having the control or management of the same, or being a reputed occupier, or an inmate of any such house.
20. When any building materials, rubbish, or other things are laid, or any hole made in any street or footway, whether the same be done by order or authority of the Board or not, the person causing such materials or other things to be laid, or such hole to be made, shall, at his own expense, cause a sufficient light to be fixed in a proper place upon or near the same, and continue such light every night from sunset to sunrise, while such materials or hole remain, and such person shall cause, at his own expense, such materials or other things, and such hole to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed until such materials or other things are removed, or the hole filled up, or otherwise made secure; and every such person who fails so to light, fence, or enclose such materials or other things, or such hole, shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds, and a further sum, not exceeding forty shillings, for every day while such default is continued.
21. That no slaughterhouse be allowed within the district.
22. That no beast, pig, or sheep, be allowed to be slaughtered within the district, where the same may be deemed a nuisance.
23. That the footpaths in the townships be nine feet on the chain roads, and five feet on half-chain roads.
24. That all verandahs erected over footpaths be at least eight feet high, and to extend to curbing of footpaths; and that no verandah be erected without permission from the Board.
25. Any person who shall obstruct any officer or other person employed by the Board in the performance of anything which such officer or other person is, or may be required, or authorised to do by, or on behalf of the Board.

REGULATION No. 1.

Building Regulations.

1. Any person wishing to erect a verandah over any public footpath must, previous to commencing such erection, obtain from the Secretary of the Board a written permission to do so.
2. Any verandah hereafter erected contrary to the regulations and provisions herein contained, shall be deemed a public nuisance, and as such shall be removed at the expense of the party causing such erection.

REGULATION No. 2.

Streets, Lanes, Right-of-Ways, and Footpaths.

1. No streets that may be laid off or made for the use of the public through private land within the district, shall be less than one hundred links wide, and no lane or right-of-way shall exceed twelve links wide.

REGULATION No. 3.

1. It shall not be lawful to keep any swine within the limits of two hundred links of a public highway.
2. No privy or cesspool shall be emptied, nor any nightsoil emptied away, nor any offensive liquor or matter of any kind whatsoever, pumped out of, or removed from any house, cellar, premises, within the district, except within the hours of midnight and six (6) o'clock a.m.

REGULATION No. 4.

Hawkers.

1. Every person who shall exercise or erry on the business of hawker, pedlar, petty chapman, or any other trading person carrying to sell, or exposing for sale any goods, wares, or merchandise, within the district, shall be required to take out a license.
2. Such license shall be issued by the District Clerk to any person applying for the same, on payment of one pound one shilling (£1 1s), and such applications shall be in writing, and signed by any two ratepayers, and by the applicant.
3. Every such license shall be in the form in the Schedule hereto annexed, and the same shall be in force for six months from the date of the issue thereof.
4. This regulation shall not extend to prevent any person from selling, or offering for sale, fish, fruit, farm or dairy produce, in the public streets or thoroughfares, or selling, or exposing for sale, any sorts of goods or merchandise, in any public market, or any other public place set apart for the like purpose.
5. If any hawker, pedlar, or petty chapman, holding such license as aforesaid, be convicted of selling stolen goods or merchandise, he shall forfeit his license.

The District Clerk shall keep a register of names, and places of abode, of all persons to whom such licenses shall be issued, and such register may be inspected by any person at reasonable times.

The Return of Sheep for the present year unfortunately shows a considerable amount of scab, as compared with previous years. The infected sheep have been shorn, and every exertion is being made to eradicate the disease; at the same time care is being taken to prevent its further spread.

The fine weather now setting in will facilitate the operations for cleaning the infected flocks, and there is every prospect of the disease being effectually overcome.
