VOL. XXIII.

FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 1876.

No. 6.

Manawatu Highway District.

PROCLAMATION

By His Honor William Fitzherbert,
Esquire, C.M.G., Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, in the Colony of New Zealand.

WHEREAS by "The Highways Act, 1874," it is, among other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent, from time to time, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to divide any district or districts into two or more new districts, and that no such Proclamation shall be issued or have any force or effect unless the Superintendent shall first have received a petition praying for the issue of such Proclamation signed by at least two-thirds of the rate-payers, reckoned according to their votes, within the boundaries of the district which such petition prays may be established, and the remaining portion of the original district shall be immediately thereafter proclaimed a new district by the Superintendent, and shall be and be deemed to be a proclaimed district, and shall be dealt with in the same manner as a proclaimed district under the provisions of the said Act: And whereas by a Proclamation bearing even date herewith, after reciting, as therein is recited, a block of land theretofore forming part of the Manawatu Highway District was, from and after the date therein mentioned, proclaimed and declared to be a Highway District by the name of the "Manchester Highway District": And whereas it is expedient that the remaining portion of the Manawatu Highway District should be proclaimed as hereinafter provided:

Now, therefore, I, William Fitzherbert, Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that the remaining portion of the said Manawatu Highway District, the boundaries whereof are described in the Schedule hereto, shall from and after the sixteenth day of March, 1876, be and be deemed to be a Highway District within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act, and that such district shall be called and known by the name of the "Manawatu Highway District."

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the Province of Wellington, at Wellington, this twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT,
Superintendent.

Countersigned—

HENRY BUNNY,
Provincial Secretary.

SCHEDULE.

Approximate area, 1,000,000 acres. Bounded on the north and north-west by the southern and south-eastern boundaries of the Rangitikei Highway District; on the east by the summit line of the Tararua and Ruahine Ranges; on the south by a line bearing about east from the source of the Waikanae River to the top of the Tararua Range and by the Waikanae River; on the west by the sea coast between the Wakanae and Rangitikei Rivers. Provided that "The Manchester Highway District," the boundaries of which are defined in the Schedule to a Proclamation issued on the twenty-fifth day of February, 1876, proclaiming the said Manchester District, shall not be included in the Manawatu Highway District as herein defined.

Manchester Highway District.

PROCLAMATION

By His Honor William Fitzherbert, Esquire, C.M.G., Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, in the Colony of New Zealand.

WHEREAS by "The Highways Act, 1874," it is among other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent from time to time, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to divide any district, or districts, into two or more new districts, and that no such Proclamation shall be issued, or shall have any force or effect, unless the Superintendent shall first have received a petition praying for the issue of such Proclamation, signed by at least two-thirds of the ratepayers reckoned according to their votes within the boundaries of the district which such petition prays may be established, and that in every Proclamation whereby a Highway District shall be proclaimed under the said Act, the name and boundaries of the district shall be set forth, and from and after a day to be fixed in and by such Proclamation (such day being not more than twenty days from the first publication thereof in the Government Gazette), the district named and defined therein shall be and be deemed to be a Highway District within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act. And whereas a petition has been received by the said Superintendent, signed by at least two-thirds of the ratepayers reckoned in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, praying for the issue of a Proclamation dividing the land therein described (being part of the Manawatu Highway District), and for constituting the same a new district as therein mentioned.

Now, therefore, I, William Fitzherbert, Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the hereinbefore in part recited Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that the block of land, the boundaries of which are described in the Schedule hereto (heretofore forming part of the Manawatu Highway District), shall from and after the fifteenth day of March, 1876, be and be deemed to be a Highway District within the meaning, or for the purposes of the said Act, and that such district shall be called and known by the name of "The Manchester Highway District."

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the Province of Wellington, at Wellington, this twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT,
Superintendent.

PROCLAMATION

By His Honor William Fitzherbert,
Esquire, C.M.G., Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, in the Colony of New Zealand.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Provincial Council of the Province of Wellington, Session XXIV., No. 5, intitled "The Local Boards Act, 1873," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the inhabitants of any locality in the Province of Wellington, exclusive of the inhabitants of the towns of Wellington and Wanganui, to apply by petition to the Superintendent of the Province, praying that in such locality a Board of Commissioners may be appointed with the several powers and authorities given by the said Act, and that on receipt of any such petition, the Superintendent of the said Province may issue a Proclamation declaring that the provisions of the said Act shall come into force within such locality, and that such locality shall thereafter be termed a district: And whereas a petition has been received by me from the inhabitants of the locality, the boundaries whereof are described in the Schedule hereto, signed by the required number of inhabitants, praying that the land contained within the boundaries described in the said Schedule may be constituted a district under the said Act: Now, therefore, I, William Fitzherbert, Superintendent of the said Province of Wellington, do hereby proclaim and declare that the block of land described in the Schedule hereto, shall be, and the same is hereby constituted a district under the said Act, and that the said district shall be called and known as "The Palmerston North Local Board District," and that the provisions of the said Act shall come into force within the said Palmerston North District from and after this date.

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the Province of Wellington, at (L.S.) Wellington, this twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT,
Superintendent.

Countersigned—

HENEY BUNNY,
Provincial Secretary.
