No. 22.

Palmerston North Local District.

BYE-LAWS.

IN pursuance of the 73rd section of "The Local Boards Act," 1873," the Board of Commissioners of the Local District of Palmerston North, order the following:—

1. The Board may make such provision as it shall think fit for the periodical removal from every dwelling-house, or other tenement as aforesaid within the district, at the expense of the owner or occupier thereof, of any nightsoil, dung, ashes, slops, filth, refuses, or rubbish of any kind.

2. The Inspector of Nuisances for the time being appointed by the Board, or any other person who may be employed by the Board for the purposes of this bye-law, shall have power at all reasonable hours in the day or night to enter into or upon any building or land within the district for the purpose of effecting any such removal, as in the last preceding section specified, or of examining the condition of any privy, cesspool, drain, or closet-pan, or of cleansing, constructing, altering, or repairing the same.

3. Any person guilty of any of the following offences, omissions, or neglects, within the districts, shall on being convicted of any such offence, neglect, or omission, be liable to pay any penalty not exceeding (£5) five pounds:—

I. Throwing or sweeping any glass, filth, dirt, rubbish, orange peel, or other matter of a similar nature upon or into any street, channel, footway, court, alley, or public place whatsoever.

II. Leading or riding any horse or other animal, or drawing, wheeling, or driving any cart, carriage, sledge, truck, barrow, or other thing upon or along any footpath, without permission from the Board so to do.

III. Burning any shaving, straw, or other material or matter upon any footway, channel, surface drain, or carriage road, without such permission as aforesaid.

IV. Drawing or trailing any sledge, timber, or other material upon any footway or carriage road.

V. Allowing nightsoil or other offensive matter to be spilt, or otherwise cast on to or upon any road, street, footway, public place, or thoroughfare.

VI. Leaving any inflammable materials in any public street or place, or on any open space near any buildings, without such permission as aforesaid.

VII. Suffering any goat or goats to trespass upon any property, public or private, within the limits of the district.

VIII. Placing any placard or other document, writing, or painting on or otherwise defacing any house or building, or any wall, fence, lamp-post, or gate, without the consent of the owner or occupier thereof.

IX. Allowing the droppings from the eaves of any house or verandah to fall upon any footpath.

- X. Opening any drain or sewer, or removing the surface of any footway or carriage road without authority from the Board of Commissioners so to do.
- XI. Neglecting to clean any private yard, way, passage, avenue, watercloset, privy, or drain, when ordered to do so by the Inspector of Nuisances or other person acting on behalf of the Board, by which neglect a nuisance by offensive smell or otherwise is caused.
- XII. Rolling any cask, beating any carpet, breaking in any horse, flying any kite, using any bows and arrows, or playing at any game, to the annoyance of any person in any public place; or obstructing any footpath or carriage road, whether by allowing any cart or animal to remain across such footpath or carriage road, or by placing goods thereon, or otherwise.
- XIII. Throwing or discharging any stone or other missile to the damage or danger of any person or property.
- XIV. Having any awning on or over any footway in any public street or thoroughfare not being eight (8) feet clear above the footway, or obstructing the footway by the supports of such awning or verandah, or hanging any goods on or under such awning over the footway.
- XV. Furiously or negligently riding or driving through any public place, street, place, or thoroughfare.
- XVI. Making any cellar door or other opening from the footway of any street or public thoroughfare without the consent, or not in accordance with the direction, of the Board.
- XVII. Exposing for sale any article whatsoever on any footway, or outside any shop window or doorway abutting on any public thoroughfare or street.
- XVIII. Discharging any firearms, or squib, cracker, rocket, or other firework within the district without permission from the Board, provided that the provision aforesaid as to discharging firearms shall not apply to any Justice of the Peace, or any person in Her Majesty's military or naval service, or any member of the police, or peace officer, or any member of a recognized volunteer corps, or any special constable, or any person actually in pursuit of any felon or offender.
- XIX. Any person laying out or opening any street or building therein, and omitting during the operations necessary for forming such street or building thereon to take all such precautions for guarding against injury to the passengers along such street as may be necessary, or as may be directed by the Board.
- XX. Any person placing any obstruction upon any street line, whereby life or limb is likely to be endangered.
- XXI. Any person neglecting or omitting to keep in good repair any rail, gate, fence, or cover over or about any area or entrance to any cellar or other place, or keeping open for more than a reasonable time for taking in or out any articles any entrance to any area, cellar, or other place, such area or entrance opening on or upon or near any public street, road, thoroughfare, or other public place.
- XXII. Any person throwing any offensive matter, or any animal with the intention of drowning it into any watercourse or other place from which a supply of water for the use of the inhabitants of the said district is obtained.
- XXIII. Any carter riding on any cart, dray, or waggon, without having and holding proper and sufficient reins, and no competent person having charge of the animal or animals drawing the same.
- XXIV. Any person driving any vehicle whatsoever, or riding any animal, and when meeting any other vehicle or animal, not keeping on the left or near side of the street, or when passing any other vehicle or animal going in the same direction not going or passing, or not allowing any person desirous so to do to pass when practicable on the right or off side of such other vehicle or animal.
- XXV. Any driver of any horse or vehicle injuring any person or property whatever by negligence, or by driving on the wrong side of the road, or by being away from his horse or cattle, so as to be unable to have the full control over them.
- XXVI. Any person driving any dog or goat harnessed to any vehicle through any public place.

XXVII. Any person who shall act as driver, or have the sole charge of more than one vehicle on any public road or street, unless in cases where two of such carts, and no more, shall be drawn each by one horse only, and the horse of the hinder of such carriages shall be attached by a sufficient rein to the back of the foremost of such vehicles.

XXVIII. Any person turning loose any horse or cattle upon any public street, or allowing any animal or animals to wander in any public street or thoroughfare within the district.

XXIX. Any person having any iron, timber, or boards laid across any vehicle going along any street or thoroughfare, so that either end should project more than two feet beyond the wheels or side of such vehicle.

XXX. Any person leaving upon any public street or thoroughfare any plough, harrow, cart, or other vehicle without any horse or animal harnessed thereto, unless in consequence of some accident having occurred.

XXXI. Any person slaughtering cattle, sheep, pigs, or any other animal within the Local Board area.

XXXII. Any person destroying, damaging, polluting, or obstructing any aqueduct, dam, sluice, pipe, pump, watercourse, or fountain.

XXXIII. Any person suffering or allowing any waste or impure water, or other matter, to remain in any cellar or place within any building or premises in the district, or allowing any waste or impure water or other matter to run or flow from any such building or premises upon or over or be on any carriage road or footway or other place, whether public or private, within the district, or shall allow the contents of any watercloset, privy, cesspool, to overflow, or to soak therefrom, so as to be offensive.

XXXIV. Any person ringing a bell or bells, or blowing any trumpet or horn, or beating any drum, tambourine, or gong, in any street or public place, within the district for the purpose of crying or calling any matter or thing whatsoever.

XXXV. Any person being the owner or tenant of any building abutting on any street where the footpath has been formed, who, by omitting or neglecting to secure and maintain the foundation of such building, causes or allows the formed footpath to fall in or be otherwise damaged.

XXXVI. Keeping any disreputable house, or house of ill-fame, or having the control or management of the same, or being a reputed occupier or an inmate of any such house.

XXXVII. Any person who shall obstruct any officer or other person employed by the Board in the performance of anything which such officer or other person is or may be required, or authorized to do by or on behalf of the Board.

Building.

1. No portico or verandah shall be of less height from the ground than eight feet.

2. Any person wishing to erect a verandah must, previous to commencing, obtain from the District Surveyor a written permission to do so.

3. Any verandah hereafter erected contrary to the regulations and provisions herein contained, shall be deemed a public nuisance, and as such shall be removed at the expense of the party causing such erection.

1. Every person who shall exercise or carry on the business of a hawker, pedlar, petty chapman, or any other trading person carrying to sell, or exposing for sale, any goods, wares, or merchandize within the Local Board area, shall be required to take out a license.

2. Every such license shall be in the form in the Schedule hereto annexed, and the same shall be in force for six months from the date of the issue thereof.

3. Such license shall be issued by the District Clerk to any person applying for the same, on payment of a sum of one pound one shilling (£1 1s.), and such application shall be in writing, and signed by any two ratepayers and by the applicant.

4. This regulation shall not extend to prevent any person from selling or offering for sale fish, fruit, farm, and dairy produce, in the public streets or thoroughfares, or selling or exposing for sale any sorts of goods or merchandize in any public market, or any other public place set apart for the like purposes.

5. If any such hawker, pedlar, or petty chapman holding such license as aforesaid be convicted of selling stolen goods or merchandize, he shall forfeit his license.

6. The District Clerk shall keep a register of the names and places of abode of all persons to whom such licenses shall be issued. Any such register may be inspected by any person at reasonable times.

Furze Fences.

1. It shall not be lawful for any person to make or place or to keep or continue any fence of brushwood, furze, or other like material within the limits of the township save and except in or upon suburban sections. Every owner or occupier of any premises who shall make or place such fence or cause such fence to be made or placed, and every owner or occupier of any premises who, after fourteen days' notice from the Board to remove any such fence thereto appertaining, or who shall suffer any such or any part thereof to remain, shall forfeit on conviction for such offence a sum not exceeding five pounds, and in every such case a sum not exceeding forty shillings for every day after any such conviction during which such fence shall continue.

2. All fences of brushwood, furze, or other like material upon suburban sections within the township shall be kept thoroughly trimmed to a height not exceeding five feet, and every owner or occupier of any premises who, after fourteen days' notice from the Board, shall neglect to trim or cause to be trimmed, any such fence thereto appertaining, shall forfeit on conviction for such offence a sum not exceeding five pounds, and in every such case a sum not exceeding forty shillings for every day after any such conviction during which such fence shall remain untrimmed.

3. No fence of brushwood, furze, or other like material shall be allowed to remain within forty feet of any building within the township, and every owner or occupier of any premises who, after fourteen days' notice from the Board, shall neglect to move, or cause to be removed, any such fence or portion thereof thereto appertaining, shall forfeit on conviction for any such offence a sum not exceeding five pounds, and in every such case a sum not exceeding forty shillings for every day after any such conviction during which such fence shall continue.

Swine and Cesspools.

1. The Board shall have the power to remove or cause to be removed all pigs and pigstyes whenever the same shall become a nuisance within any part of the Local Board area, and every owner or occupier of any premises who, after fourteen days' notice from the Board, shall neglect to remove or cause to be removed the same, shall forfeit on conviction for such offence a sum not exceeding five pounds, and in every such case a sum not exceeding forty shillings for every day after such conviction during which such pigs or pigstyes shall continue.

2. The Board shall have the power to remove, or cause to be removed or cleaned, all cesspools, closets, privies, &c., within the district, when the same are, or shall become, a nuisance. Every owner or occupier of any premises who, after fourteen days' notice from the Board, shall neglect to remove or clean, or cause to be removed or cleaned the same, shall forfeit on conviction for such offence a sum not exceeding five pounds, and in every such case a sum not exceeding forty shillings for every day after such conviction during which such cesspool, closet, privy, &c., shall continue or remain uncleared.

3. No privy or cesspool shall be emptied, nor any nightsoil carted away, nor any offensive liquor or matter of any kind whatever, pumped out of or removed from any house, cellar, or premises within the district except between the hours of midnight and six o'clock a.m.

Passed by the Board this 2nd day of May, 1876.

JAMES LINTON,
Chairman Palmerston North Local Board.
By and with the advice of my Executive Council, I hereby approve of the foregoing Bye-laws.
WILLIAM FITZHERBERT,
Superintendent.
