VOL. XXIII.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1876.

No. 25.

Lower Hutt Local Board.

ADDITIONAL BYE-LAWS.

IN pursuance of clause 73 of "The Local Boards Act, 1873," the Board of Commissioners for the Lower Hutt Local Board District make the following additional bye-laws, that is to say—

Any person guilty of the following offences, omissions, or neglects within the boundaries of the Lower Hutt Local Board District shall, on conviction of any such offence, neglect, or omission, be liable to pay any penalty not exceeding £5 :—

- I. Placing any placard or other document, writing, or painting on or otherwise defacing any building or house, or any wall, fence, lamp-post, or gate without the consent of the owner or occupier thereof.
- II. Furiously or negligently riding or driving through any public place, road, or thoroughfare, or driving a vehicle after dark without lights.
- III. Neglecting to clean any private yard, way, passage, avenue, water-closet, privy, cowshed, pig-stye, stables, or drain, by which neglect a nuisance by offensive smell or otherwise is caused.
- IV. Allowing any sludge or other offensive matter to flow over any footpath or to flow into any road.
- V. Allowing the contents of any privy or cesspit to soak therefrom so as to be offensive.

- VI. Refusing any Health Officer, Sanitary Inspector, Inspector of Nuisances, or other officer duly appointed by the Board of Commissioners permission within reasonable hours to inspect any premises.
- VII. Neglecting to abate any nuisance whatever within twenty-four hours after receiving notice so to do from any Health Officer, Sanitary inspector, Inspector of Nuisances, or other duly appointed officer, unless in such written notice longer time be allowed.
- VIII. Throwing or discharging any stone or other missile in any public place or thoroughfare.
- IX. Any person hawking, selling, or offering for sale in any road or public place in the Lower Hutt Local Board District, without first having paid to the Inspector, or other person duly appointed by the Board of Commissioners, the undermentioned dues, during which period such articles may be hawked, exposed, or offered for sale, or other dues as may be from time to time fixed and appointed by the said Board :—
 - 1st. Dues from any person selling, hawking, or offering for sale any articles in any road or public place in the Lower Hutt Local Board District, with cart, per month, 5s. (five shillings); per quarter, 10s. (ten shillings).

2nd. And the onus of proof that any articles being delivered about or on the roads of the before-mentioned district have been previously ordered, and not being hawked, shall in such case rest with the vendor or party delivering the articles or goods, provided that the hawking or selling of fish or milk be exempt from this By-law.

X. Any person being the owner or tenant of any building abutting on any road where the footpath has been formed, who by omitting or neglecting to secure and maintain the foundation of such building, causes the footpath to fall in or be otherwise damaged.

XI. Any person destroying, damaging, polluting, or obstructing any aqueduct, dam, sluice-pipe, pump, or water-course.

XII. Any person who shall allow any furze to grow wild, after receiving notice from the Board to remove the same.

The foregoing additional bye-laws were passed by the Board of Commissioners for the Lower Hutt Local Board District at a meeting held on the fourth day of April, 1875.

HENRY JACKSON,
Chairman.

I hereby approve of the foregoing bye-laws, with the advice of my Executive Council this 20th day of June, 1876.
