HOKITIKA, THURSDAY, JULY 30, 1868.

HOKITIKA TOWN LANDS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the last day on which improved town sections in Hokitika can be bought at the fixed price is Tuesday, the 4th of August.

The fixed price for sections within the Triangle is as follows:—

Where the depth of the section exceeds one chain—Thirty shillings per foot frontage.

Where the depth of the section does not exceed one chain—Twenty shillings per foot frontage.

The fixed price for sections outside the Triangle is Five shillings per foot frontage, without regard to the depth.

The frontage, and fixed price, of any section may be ascertained on application at the Survey Office.

All applicants will be required to prove to the satisfaction of the Board that they are the persons who are entitled to purchase the sections for which they apply, that their improvements are of the full value of £25, and that they were erected before the 1st of July, 1868.

All applicants are warned that they must place their names on the application book, at the Land Office, before appearing before the Board. This may be done on any day between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

All sections which are not sold at the fixed price, as before mentioned, will hereafter be put up to auction, on a day of which due notice will be given, at the following upset prices, that is to say:

1. Unimproved Sections — Forty-eight pounds per acre.

2. Improved Sections, where the improvements are of the full value of twenty-five pounds, and were erected before the 10th October, 1867.

(1.) WITHIN THE TRIANGLE.

Where the depth of the section exceeds one chain—Twenty shillings per foot frontage.

Where the depth of the section does not exceed one chain—Fifteen shillings per foot frontage.

(2.) OUTSIDE THE TRIANGLE.

Five shillings per foot frontage.
