PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, by a Proclamation in the Government Gazette, of the Province of Canterbury, bearing date the 13th day of November, 1867, made by William Sefton Moorhouse, Esq., the then Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, in pursuance of the powers delegated to him under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," it was declared that all that portion of the Province of Canterbury to the west of the dividing range, meaning thereby the County of Westland, as defined in the Schedule to "The County of Westland Act, 1868," was an infected district within the meaning of the said Act :

And whereas, by the 14th section of the "Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," it is enacted that the Governor in Council may, by warrant under his hand, from time to time, delegate to the Superintendent of any Province within the said Colony, all, or any of the powers vested in the Governor in Council by the said Act, subject to such regulations as he may think fit, and may from time to time rescind such delegation :

And whereas by the fifth section of "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," it is enacted that as to regulations, appointments, and prohibitory and other declarations made by Superintendents of Provinces in pursuance of any powers delegated under the powers of delegation contained in "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," or "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," the power of annulling, making void, or allowing, or varying and making anew, any such regulations, appointments, or prohibitory, or other declarations vested in the Governor by "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," may from time to time be delegated by the Governor in Council by warrant under his hand, to the Superintendent of any Province who shall by virtue of such delegation be empowered from time to time by declaration to annul, make void, or alter, or vary, and make anew, any regulations, appointments, and prohibitory, or other declarations made under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," or "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," by the Superintendent of any Province to whom such power is delegated, or by any previous Superintendent of the same Province :

And whereas by "The County of Westland Act, 1868," it is enacted that all powers at the time of the coming into operation of "The County of Westland Act, 1867," vested in the Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, either solely, or with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, of the said Province, by any Act of the General Assembly, or by any Ordinance mentioned in the Schedule to "The County of Westland Act, 1868," except so far as any such powers have been divested, varied, or altered by law, on or since the coming into operation of "The County of Westland Act, 1867," shall, within the said County, so far as applicable to the circumstances of said County, be vested in the Chairman of the County Council, and all powers and authorities, which under any Ordinance of the Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor, and the Legislative Council of New Zealand, or under any Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, may be delegated by the Governor, or the Governor in Council, to the Superintendent of a Province, or to any person or persons, may within and for the County of Westland be delegated to the Chairman of the County Council, or to any other persons or persons as the Governor may think fit :

And whereas by an instrument in writing, bearing date the 3rd day of February, 1869, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the 8th February, 1869, His Excellency, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, did, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, delegate unto me, Conrad Hoos, Chairman of the County Council of the County of Westland, so long as I shall remain Chairman of the County Council, the several powers vested in the Governor by the second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth and tenth sections of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," and all the powers which by the fifth section of "The Diseased Cattle Amendment Act, 1865," the Governor in Council is authorised to delegate, subject to be rescinded as in the said Acts provided, and subject to the regulations contained in an order in Council of the fourth day of November, 1868," and published in the New Zealand Gazette, No. 62, of the 8th day of November, 1868 :

And whereas it has been made to appear to me that it is expedient to revoke the said Proclamation made by W. S. Moorhouse, Esq., the then Superintendent of Canterbury :

Now therefore I, Conrad Hoos, Chairman of the County Council, by virtue of the powers vested in me in that behalf, do hereby rescind, annul, and make void, the said Proclamation, and do further order that this Proclamation shall take effect from and after the first day of March next.

Given under my hand, at Hokitika, this thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, by "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," it is enacted that the Governor in Council may, by warrant under his hand, from time to time, delegate to the Superintendent of any Province or any other person within the said Colony, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor in Council by the said Act, subject to such Regulations as he may think fit, and from time to time to rescind such delegation :

And whereas, by an Order in Council dated the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said Colony, did hereby delegate to me, Conrad Hoos, Chairman of the County Council of the County of Westland, the several powers vested in him by the second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth and tenth Sections of the said Act, subject to be rescinded as in the said Act provided, and subject to the Regulations issued by the Governor on the eighteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and to any other Regulations to be from time to time duly made :

And whereas, it has been made to appear to me that the disease called Pleuro-pneumonia has broken out amongst cattle in the County of Westland :

Now therefore, I, Conrad Hoos, Chairman of the County Council, in pursuance of the powers, in that behalf vested in me, do hereby declare all that portion of the Colony described in the first Schedule to "The County of Westland Act, 1868," as the County of Westland, to be an infected district within the meaning of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," and I do hereby make the following Regulations for the destruction of diseased cattle within the said Infected District, and for preventing the further spread of the aforesaid disease :

1. If any Inspector appointed under these Regulations, or otherwise under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," for the infected district above referred to, shall at any time have reasonable grounds to suspect that any cattle within the infected district above referred to are infected with pleuro-pneumonia, it shall be his duty and he is hereby authorised forthwith, or as soon as he conveniently can, to proceed to and enter into and upon the place, whether enclosed or otherwise, where such cattle are or are supposed by him to be, and by inspecting such cattle, or in any other manner, shall satisfy himself whether such cattle or any of them are infected, or may reasonably suspected to be infected with pleuro-pneumonia.

2. If such Inspector shall be satisfied that such cattle or any of them are actually infected with pleuro-pneumonia, he shall forthwith give to the owner or the person having the custody, charge, or possession of the said cattle, notice of which of the said cattle he deems actually infected with such disease; and such owner or person aforesaid shall, within twenty-four hours after such notice, destroy the cattle so deemed infected, and shall forthwith bury four feet under ground, or burn the carcasses of the cattle so destroyed; and if the owner or person having the custody or possession of the cattle deemed by the Inspector to be infected cannot readily be found, or if such owner or person neglect to destroy the cattle deemed infected after the receipt of the notice aforesaid, any Inspector for the said infected district may seize and destroy, or cause to be seized and destroyed such cattle so deemed infected.

3. If any owner of cattle, or any person having the custody or charge of cattle, shall after having received such notice as aforesaid, neglect or refuse to destroy the same or any of them within twenty-four hours after such notice, such owner or person aforesaid shall be liable to a fine or penalty of Fifty Pounds for every head of cattle which he shall have neglected or refused to destroy.

4. If any owner of cattle which any such Inspector as aforesaid has notified to be infected, or if any person having the custody care or possession of any such cattle shall, after the same or any of them have been destroyed, neglect or refuse to bury four feet under ground or burn the carcasses thereof within twenty-four hours after the destruction thereof, such owner or person aforesaid shall be liable to a penalty of Ten Pounds for every carcass which he shall neglect or refuse to bury or burn.

5. If any Inspector for the said infected district shall suspect that any cattle within the said infected district are infected with pleuro-pneumonia, but shall not be satisfied that such cattle are actually infected, he may, if he think fit, give to the owner or the person having the custody, charge or possession of such cattle, notice in writing of what cattle he suspects to be infected with pleuro-pneumonia, and shall in and by such notice order and require such owner or person having the custody, charge or possession of such cattle to drive or cause to be driven the cattle mentioned in the said notice, to such place within the said infected district as such Inspector shall think fit, and such Inspector may in and by such notice direct and fix by what roads and route the said cattle shall be so driven; and if any person being the owner of any cattle, or having in his custody care or possession any cattle within the said infected district shall after the expiration of forty-eight hours after such last mentioned notice has been served upon him or left at his usual place of business or residence, neglect or refuse to obey such order, or shall neglect or refuse to drive or cause to be driven the cattle mentioned in the said notice to the place and by the roads and route directed and fixed on by the said notice, such person shall be liable to a penalty of Ten Pounds for every head of cattle included in such last mentioned notice and after the expiration of the said period of forty-eight hours it shall be lawful for any such Inspector, if such owner or person as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to obey such order to seize and take into his possession the cattle included in such notice, and drive or cause to be driven the said cattle to the place and by the roads and route mentioned and fixed in the said notice.

6. In case any person shall wilfully impede or obstruct any Inspector or any police constable acting under the authority of these Regulations, every person so offending shall, and may be seized and detained by such person acting as aforesaid or any person or persons he may call to his assistance until such offender or offenders can be taken before two Justices of the Peace, and shall be liable to a penalty of Fifty Pounds.

7. All owners or persons having the custody care or possession of any cattle within the said infected district shall within fourteen days from the 1st day of March next, give a notice in writing to the Inspector of Cattle for the County of Westland containing the number of such cattle, the particulars as nearly as can be of the place or places where such cattle are kept or are, and the brands with which they are branded, and if such owners or persons shall neglect or refuse to obey this Regulation they shall be liable to a penalty of Ten Pounds.

7. These Regulations to take effect on and after Tuesday, the 1st March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Given under my hand at Hokitika this
