JAMES FERGUSSON, GOVERNOR.

(L.S.) A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Immigration and Public Works Act, 1870," it is, amongst other things, enacted that the Governor, from time to time, by Proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, may, as to parts within the North Island of New Zealand, define the roads and the boundaries thereof, and the bridges and ferries which shall be and be deemed to be roads, bridges, or ferries, as the case may be, under the provisions of the said Act, and any such Proclamation may include existing roads, but no such roads or parts of roads shall be included if they are, in the opinion of the Governor in Council, roads which should be constructed by the Superintendent and the Provincial Council of the Province wherein such roads are situated, as well as new road lines; and the Governor from time to time may revoke or alter any such Proclamation: And whereas by "The Immigration and Public Works Act, 1872," it is, among other things, enacted that all the provisions contained in Part I. and Part VI. of "The Immigration and Public Works Act, 1870," shall be applicable to the County of Westland and the Nelson South-West Gold Fields, and may be adapted and used with reference to those portions of the Colony, as if such portions had formed part of the North Island: And whereas by "The Province of Westland Act, 1873," it is, among other things, enacted that after the first election of a Superintendent of the Province of Westland, whenever in any Act for the time being in force mention or reference is made to the County of Westland, such Act shall be construed and read as if in such Act the Province of Westland was mentioned or referred to, instead of the County of Westland: And whereas "The Province of Westland Act, 1873," came into operation on the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in accordance with the terms of a Proclamation made in pursuance thereof, and published in the New Zealand Gazette on the sixth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and a Superintendent of the said Province has been elected as Superintendent thereof: And whereas it is expedient that the roads mentioned and defined in the Schedules hereto should be constructed under the firstly in part recited Act: And whereas, in the opinion of the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, and the Executive Council of New Zealand, the said roads are not roads which should be constructed by the Superintendent and the Provincial Council of the Province of Westland:

Now therefore, I, Sir James Fergusson, Baronet, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise and pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Acts, and of every other power and authority enabling me in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that the roads within the County of Westland described, and the boundaries whereof are set forth in the several Schedules hereto, shall respectively be and be deemed to be roads under the provisions of the said firstly in part recited Act; and in further pursuance of "The Immigration and Public Works Act, 1870," I do hereby proclaim and declare that I have caused a map and survey plan of the road defined in the First Schedule hereto, describing the course and bearings and the admeasurements required for the same, and through what lands the same is proposed to pass, and the names of the owners or occupiers thereof, so far as known, to be deposited in the office of the Public Works Department at Greymouth, in the Province of Westland; and I have also caused a like map and survey plan of the road defined in the Second Schedule, and containing like particulars, to be deposited in the office of the said Department at Greymouth aforesaid; which said maps and survey plans are authenticated, for the purposes of this Proclamation, by the signature of the Honorable Edward Richardson, Minister for Public Works.
